Played In Britain Plays And Playwrights:

British Playwrights, 1956-1995 William W. Demastes, 1996-10-23 The year 1956 marked a point when British drama and theater fell into the hands of a group of young playwrights who revolutionized the stage During that time playwrights such as Samuel Beckett and Harold Pinter made the British theater as rich varied and vital as any national theater in history This reference chronicles the history of British theater from 1956 to 1995 by providing detailed information about the playwrights of that period Included are entries for some three dozen British playwrights active between 1956 and 1995 Entries are arranged alphabetically to facilitate use Each entry supplies biographical information the production history for particular plays a survey of the playwright's critical reception an assessment of the dramatist's work and primary and secondary bibliographies A selected general bibliography at the end of the volume directs the reader to important sources of additional information about this period in theater history The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary British

Playwrights Martin Middeke, Peter Paul Schnierer, Aleks Sierz, 2011-10-17 The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary British Playwrights is an authoritative guide to the work of twenty five playwrights who have risen to prominence since the 1980s Written by an international team of scholars it will be invaluable to anyone interested in studying or teaching contemporary drama Among the many playwrights whose work is examined are Sarah Daniels Terry Johnson Martin Crimp Sarah Kane Anthony Neilson Mark Ravenhill Simon Stephens Debbie Tucker Green Tanika Gupta and Richard Bean Each essay features A biographical sketch and introduction to the playwright A discussion of their most important plays An analysis of their stylistic and thematic traits the critical reception and their place in the discourses of British theatre A bibliography of texts and critical material How Stage Playwrights Saved the British Cinema, 1930-1956 David

Cottis, 2024-12-26 Examines the film careers and work of British playwrights who worked as screenwriters between 1930 1956 During the period between the 1927 Cinematograph Films Act and the new drama of the 1950s many British writers associated with the stage also wrote for films bringing the techniques of the well made play with them Some like Bernard Shaw Noel Coward and Terence Rattigan were screenwriter stars part of the publicity of the films they worked on Pygmalion Brief Encounter The Way to the Stars Others were less celebrated but had long successful screen careers such as R C Sherriff author of Journey's End who worked on films as different as The Invisible Man The Four Feathers and The Dam Busters Using the authors original archives this book follows the way in which these writers adapted their stage skills for the screen contributing to the post war Golden Age of the British cinema and creating the classic form of screenplay that continues today The Cambridge Companion to British Theatre since 1945 Jen Harvie, Dan Rebellato, 2024-03-21 British theatre underwent a vast transformation and expansion in the decades after World War II This Companion explores the historical political and social contexts and conditions that not only allowed it to expand but crucially shaped it Resisting a critical tendency to focus on plays alone the collection expands understanding of British theatre by illuminating contexts such as funding unionisation devolution immigration and changes to legislation Divided into four parts it guides readers through changing attitudes to theatre making acting directing writing theatre sectors West End subsidised Fringe theatre communities audiences Black theatre queer theatre and theatre's relationship to the state government infrastructure nationhood Supplemented by a valuable Chronology and Guide to Further Reading it presents up to date approaches informed by critical race theory queer studies audience studies and archival research to demonstrate important new ways of conceptualising post war British theatre's history practices and potential futures

Text and Performance in Contemporary British Theatre Catherine Love, 2023-02-27 Text and Performance in Contemporary British Theatre interrogates the paradoxical nature of theatre texts which have been understood both as separate literary objects in their own right and as material for performance Drawing on analysis of contemporary practitioners who are working creatively with text the book re-examines the relationship between text and performance within the specific context of British theatre The chapters discuss a wide range of theatre makers creating work in the UK from the 1990s onwards from playwrights like Tim Crouch and Jasmine Lee Jones to companies including Action Hero and RashDash In doing so the book addresses issues such as theatrical authorship artistic intention and the apparent incompleteness of plays as both written and performed phenomena Text and Performance in Contemporary British Theatre also explores the implications of changing technologies of page and stage analysing the impact of recent developments in theatre making editing and publishing on the status of the theatre text Written for scholars students and practitioners alike Text and Performance in Contemporary British Theatre provides an original perspective on one of the most enduring problems to occupy theatre practice and scholarship

Ethics in the Post-Truth Era and Contemporary British Drama

Ayşen Demir Kılıç, Aylin Atilla Mat, 2025-09-11 Twenty first century British Drama presents a wide range of perspectives experimental practices and critical approaches Recent plays are concerned with ethical and political issues and their use of innovative techniques is continuously challenging the meaning making process The ethical revival in several disciplines in recent times has found its reflections in literary theory and theatre as well Ethical interrogations in the contemporary age peak with the post truth condition in which the actions of people are manipulated by lies based on beliefs and emotions Thus the nature of ethical stance in such an age deserves to be investigated especially in contemporary theatrical studies This book aims to provide an ethical viewpoint to the works of three renowned contemporary British playwrights David Greig Marina Carr and Martin Crimp and to demonstrate their innovative styles and experimental approaches It seeks the traces of ethical transformation in the contemporary age and provides a Levinasian ethical critique Thus with its contemporary perspective this book contributes to the literary field and it is of interest to scholars working on contemporary British theatre and Ethical Criticism
