

How to use this Study Guide

The study guide is divided into four weeks. Each week is comprised of Homework (to be done before class) and Classroom Discussion. The Homework will always consist of vocabulary, chart work, the reading assignment, parent discussion questions, and comprehension questions. It is recommended for students to review the Classroom Discussion prior to coming to class so that they are prepared to participate in discussion. It is not necessary for them to know every answer to these questions, but simply to be thinking about them ahead of time. Charts are located in the back of the study guide. These are filled in throughout the weeks and turned in at the completion of the study guide. All other Homework is turned in weekly. Please pay attention to directions for charts and vocabulary each week, as they may not always be the same.

Week One begins with the Homework assignments. If you are introducing this guide in a classroom, it is recommended that you read through the cover information about the book and author (Note that the Book Background may contain spoilers), go over how to use this guide, and familiarize the class with the charts and Week One's assignment.

About the Author:

Born in Boston on January 19, 1809, and orphaned in 1811, Edgar Allan Poe became the foster child of John and Frances Allan of Richmond, where he completed his early schooling. He attended the University of Virginia in 1826, but gambling debts forced him to cease attendance from whence he headed to Boston. He published his first book and enlisted in the U.S. Army in 1827. Some years later, he published two more works of poetry, followed by obtaining a position at the Southern Literary Messenger in 1835. In 1836 he publicly married his 13 year-old cousin, cause enough for the acquisition of a disreputable reputation. However, the greater reason for Poe's nefarious name was the savage reviews he wrote, which incidentally raised the quality of The Messenger. After an economic collapse, he moved to New York for a short time, followed by settling in Philadelphia where, in 1839, he wrote the infamous The Fall of the House of Usher. His fame culminated with acclaim for The Raven, published in 1845. Now dwelling in Fordham, Poe continued to write and care for Virginia, his wife, until her death in 1847. For the next two years he composed some of his most renowned poetry, only to succumb to death after election-day alcoholic lechery. Edgar Allan Poe died in Baltimore on October 7, 1849.
