S2014 June Mark Scheme:

From Civil Partnerships to Same-Sex Marriage Nicola Barker, Daniel Monk, 2015-04-17 The Civil Partnership Act 2004 and the Marriage Same Sex Couples Act 2013 are important legal social and historical landmarks rich in symbolic material and cultural meanings While fiercely opposed by many within mainstream narratives they are often represented as a victory in a legal reform process that commenced with the decriminalisation of homosexuality Yet at the same time for others they represent a problematic and ambivalent political engagement with the institution of marriage Consequently understood or labelled as revolutionary progressive and conservative these legal reforms provide a space for thinking about issues that arguably affect everyone regardless of sexual orientation or relationship status This edited collection brings together scholars and commentators from a range of backgrounds generations and disciplines to reflect on the first ten years of civil partnerships and the introduction of same sex marriage Rather than rehearsing the arguments for and against relationship recognition the essays ask original questions draw on a variety of methods and collectively provide a detailed and reflective snap shot of a critical moment a history of the present as well as providing a foundation for innovative ways of thinking about and engaging with the possibilities and experiences arising from the new reality of relationship recognition for gays and lesbians

Hubs of Illicit Trade in the Global Economy Yulia Krylova,2024-09-30 This book meticulously examines how centers of illicit trade pose myriad threats to global security and sustainable development The exponential growth of illicit trade resulting in annual losses amounting to trillions of dollars for the global economy is increasingly concentrated within specific geographic areas These locales serve as safe havens for smugglers and their accomplices fostering a criminal ecosystem that facilitates the convergence of various criminal activities The book underscores the detrimental impact of poorly regulated international free trade zones which prioritize expediency over security thereby allowing illicit trade to flourish in regions characterized by opaque governance and lax regulatory oversight It comprehensively explores the spectrum of illicit trade present in notorious hubs such as the Argentina Brazil Paraguay Tri Border Area Dubai Panama Belize Guatemala and Ukraine Emphasizing the phenomenon of crime convergence associated with these hubs the book offers actionable recommendations for disrupting their interconnected illicit supply chains infrastructures and networks By addressing this interconnectedness the book fills a critical void in understanding how vulnerabilities within the global economy fuel the creation of illicit trade hubs It will be of great value to researchers in the fields of trade economics criminology and international development It will also be an excellent resource for government agencies policymakers and private sector managers in those industries most affected by the growing problem of illicit trade

Anatomy of State Capture Nina Callaghan,Robyn Foley,Mark Swilling,2021-11-26 Following the release of the Public Protector's State of Capture Report in November 2016 South Africans have been witness to an explosion of almost daily revelations of corruption mismanagement and abuses by those entrusted to lead the nation The extent of this betrayal is overwhelming and it is often difficult to distil what actually happened during the Zuma administration This book draws on the insights and expertise of 19 contributors from various sectors and disciplines to provide an account of what transpired at strategic sites of the state capture project The ongoing threat of state capture demands a response that probes beyond what happened to understanding how it was allowed to happen The stubborn culture of corruption and misgovernance continue to manifest unabated and the predatory practices which enable state capture have not yet been disrupted It is our hope that the various case studies and analyses presented in this book will contribute to confronting these shortcomings in current discourse and open avenues for progressive deliberation on how to collectively reclaim the prospects of a just and prosperous South Africa for all

Conflict Propaganda in Syria Oliver Boyd-Barrett, 2021-12-28 This book investigates rival narratives about the conflict in Syria from 2011 onwards It examines the starkly different narratives about the Syrian conflict told by mainly Western mainstream and alternative media and contrasts these narratives with the equally polarized but more nuanced narratives of mainly Western scholars and long form journalists Differences of narrative concerning the conflict include what is deemed relevant context in trying to explain the war whether the war is best seen as a civil conflict or as a proxy war fought among external powers the degree of emphasis given to the alleged crimes of the Syrian regime as opposed to the alleged violence of Salafist militia the accuracy of the origin story of the conflict in Daraa the extent to which the initial protestors were secular campaigners calling for democracy or whether they were Muslim extremists seeking a sectarian society governed by sharia law Several case studies of propaganda institutions are examined here including the journalism of Marie Colvin the role of government funded NGOs the controversies surrounding each of three major instances of alleged regime use of chemical weapons and the politicization of the Organization for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons OPCW This book will be of much interest to students of media and communication studies propaganda studies Middle Eastern politics and International Relations in general

The Experience of Being First in Family at University Sharron King, Ann Luzecky, Ben McCann, 2019-10-26 This book provides an in depth analysis of what it means to be the first in family at university It examines the factors that influence first in family students decisions to enrol attend and continue at university and how their hopes dreams and ambitions for the future affect their university experience Using survey data and semi structured interviews the book offers valuable and far reaching insights into the first in family student experience and provides recommendations for future practice at the national and institutional level for teaching and professional staff as well as for first in family students As universities face intense competition for students and growing economic constraints due to funding cuts and increasing costs this book comes at a critical time
