mediated by individuals organizations and states and considers the multiplicity of actors and interactions involved in generating and sustaining anti apartheid around the world It includes detailed accounts of key case studies from Europe Asia and Latin America which illustrate the complex relationships between local and global agendas as well as the diverse political cultures embodied in anti apartheid Taken together these examples reveal the tensions and synergies transnational webs and local contingencies that helped to create the sense of being global that united worldwide anti apartheid campaigns

Army of None: Autonomous Weapons and the Future of War Paul Scharre, 2018-04-24 Winner of the 2019 William E Colby Award The book I had been waiting for I can't recommend it highly enough Bill Gates The era of autonomous weapons has arrived Today around the globe at least thirty nations have weapons that can search for and destroy enemy targets all on their own Paul Scharre a leading expert in next generation warfare describes these and other high tech weapons systems from Israel's Harpy drone to the American submarine hunting robot ship Sea Hunter and examines the legal and ethical issues surrounding their use A smart primer to what's to come in warfare Bruce Schneier Army of None engages military history global policy and cutting edge science to explore the implications of giving weapons the freedom to make life and death decisions A former soldier himself Scharre argues that we must embrace technology where it can make war more precise and humane but when the choice is life or death there is no replacement for the human heart

The South China Sea Arbitration Alfredo C. Robles, 2019-01-01 The South China Sea Arbitration which marks the first time that the Philippines and China have been parties to a compulsory dispute settlement procedure is a landmark legal case The Tribunal tackled head on critical issues in the interpretation and application of the UN Convention on the Law of the Sea that other international courts have failed to address particularly the compatibility of historic rights with the Convention the identification of maritime features as permanently submerged or above water at high tide and the distinction between features that are fully entitled to maritime zones and those that are not In addition the Tribunal also had to decide on issues as diverse as near collisions at sea illegal fishing of giant clams and sea turtles and the destruction of fragile coral reefs resulting from island building The Tribunal's task was rendered arduous by China's refusal to appear before it In these circumstances understanding the Tribunal's decisions is a challenging undertaking China's public relations campaign targeting the proceedings raised issues that the layperson could readily grasp notably African states support for its non appearance the integrity of the judges and the validity of arbitral awards Understanding the Awards and Debating with China aims to facilitate understanding of the South China Sea Arbitration by presenting detailed summaries of the two Arbitral Awards The author rebuts the questionable claims raised by China's public relations campaign and highlights China's covert actions during the proceedings
