How the New Deal Built Florida Tourism David J. Nelson, 2019-04-11 Florida Historical Society Rembert Patrick Award Florida Book Awards Silver Medal for Florida Nonfiction Countering the conventional narrative that Florida's tourism industry suffered during the Great Depression this book shows that the 1930s were in reality the starting point for much that characterizes modern Florida's tourism David Nelson argues that state and federal government programs designed to reboot the economy during this decade are crucial to understanding the state today Nelson examines the impact of three connected initiatives the federal New Deal its Civilian Conservation Corps program CCC and the CCC's creation of the Florida Park Service He reveals that the CCC designed state parks to reinforce the popular image of Florida as a tropical exotic and safe paradise The CCC often removed native flora and fauna introduced exotic species and created artificial landscapes that were then presented as natural Nelson discusses how Florida business leaders benefitted from federally funded development and the ways residents and business owners rejected or supported the commercialization and shifting cultural identity of their state A detailed look at a unique era in which the state government sponsored the tourism industry helped commodify natural resources and boosted mythical ideas of the Real Florida that endure today this book makes the case that the creation of the Florida Park Service is the story of modern Florida

Managing Coastal Tourism Resorts Sheela Agarwal, Gareth Shaw, 2007-10-19 The vast majority of existing academic research of coastal tourism resort management has been undertaken in northern and southern Europe at the expense of a wider global consideration This book aims to address this deficit and develop a global perspective on the management issues facing coastal resorts By drawing on examples it incorporates a detailed analysis of a range of economic socio cultural political and environmental issues which are being experienced to differing extents by coastal tourism resorts which are at different life cycle stages of development The major management themes highlighted include the processes of restructuring attempts to develop sustainable agendas and environmental issues of developing resorts in sensitive areas Written by key experts this book provides a critical assessment of the key management issues facing coastal tourism resorts globally In doing so it represents more than a mere amalgamation of existing literature as it aims to advance conceptual understanding of resort evolution and change
