Sa Navy Application Forms:

African Navies Timothy Stapleton, 2022-11-11 This edited volume focuses on aspects of the understudied theme of African sea power including African navies and the engagement of non African navies with the continent Africa possesses 48 000 kilometers of coastline comprising 38 out of 54 of the continent's states and several strategic choke points for international shipping such as the Suez Canal the Gulf of Aden and the Cape of Good Hope Nevertheless post colonial Africa's small navies and their relations with the navies of external powers have not received much scholarly attention Focusing on Sub Saharan Africa this collection attempts to address this neglect and stimulate further research by offering original chapters related to historical and contemporary themes around Africa's navies The historical chapters cover the origin of the Tanzanian Ethiopian Nigerian and Ghana navies during the era of decolonization and the Cold War the asymmetrical naval campaign fought during the Nigerian Civil War 1967-70 and the activities of the Soviet Navy in supporting African states and movements fighting lingering colonialism and white supremacy during the 1970s and 1980s Focusing on the contemporary situation other chapters discuss the engagement of the Indian Navy with Africa the potential role of the Angolan and Mozambican navies in the Southern African Development Community SADC the transformation and development of the post apartheid South African Navy and the challenges and capabilities of African navies in the early twenty first century The book concludes by discussing the question of whether African coastal countries need navies This book will be of much interest to students of naval power strategic studies African politics and International Relations Chapters 1 2 6 and 8 of this book are available for free in Open Access at www.taylorfrancis.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Salut, 1994 Botha, Smuts and the Great War Antonio Garcia, Ian van der Waag, 2023-10-30 In Botha Smuts and the Great War 1914-1918 authors Antonio Garcia and Ian Van Der Waag conducted painstaking research in South Africa and the United Kingdom to produce this first of a kind volume on the wartime roles of South African prime minister General Louis Botha and his deputy General Jan Smuts These very different men appealed to different audiences Botha's nuance and emotional intelligence complemented Smuts's intellectualism Thrown into a world conflagration in August 1914 and facing internal rebellion and the threat posed by German troops on the borders they led South Africa's Union Defence Force Both Botha and Smuts commanded in the field Steadily the South African army they commanded benefiting from wartime training sometimes in the field gained resilience experience and battle hardiness adapting to the conditions of the campaigns and the demands of the tasks South Africa's campaigns were complex and divergent starting with the invasion of neighbouring German South West Africa to neutralise enemy radio stations and so aid the security of the South Atlantic Suddenly suspended following the outbreak of the Afrikaner Rebellion the campaign recommenced in January 1915 Following its conclusion an infantry brigade raised for Western Front service was diverted to Egypt before facing near annihilation at Delville Wood Simultaneously a large South African force fighting alongside British

African and Indian forces overcame German resistance in East Africa whilst a brigade of field artillery and later the Cape Corps served in Egypt and Palestine Moreover approximately 6 500 South Africans served in the British Army Royal Flying Corps Royal Air Force and in the Royal Navy Although lionised during the war by a British public hungry for heroes there is a different side to Botha and Smuts Shunned by Afrikaner nationalists at the time they have remained divisive figures Responsible for the enactment of the Land Act of 1913 which shaped South Africa's socio economic and political landscape Botha's statues in Cape Town Durban and Pretoria were vandalised on a number of occasions between 2015 and 2022 and there were recent calls for Smuts's statues to be removed Behind Botha's charming attractive facade and Smuts's stoic machine were two very human imperfect and quite probably inconsiderate men Together they provide a wonderful lens through which to examine the potent forces of the early twentieth century world and the country they hoped to forge Myopic compatriots had constrained their plans but it was the outbreak of war in 1914 that offered the most significant opportunities and brought the most adverse challenges They fought insurmountable odds and achieved great victories at home and abroad but also made startling errors and ultimately in classical fashion risked being crushed by the weight of the world they tried to create
