Park,2016-06-02 A historical reference work on Morocco must take as its subject al maghrib al aqsa the far west as the Arabic scholars have generally referred to the approximate region of present day Morocco roughly the north west corner of Africa but at times including much of the Iberian peninsula because the modern nation state is a relatively recent creation owing much to events in the late 19th and early 20th centuries External influences on Morocco tend to come across the narrow straits of Gibraltar to the north from the east along the Mediterranean litoral or up from the Sahara In each case access is constrained by geography and continued control from outside the region has been difficult to manage over the long term Although many of the dynasties that came to power in Morocco conquered much broader regions history and topology have so conspired that there is still more coherence to an historical focus on al maghrib al aqsa than is the case for most modern nation states This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Morocco contains a chronology an introduction a glossary and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Morocco The World of Hrishikesh Mukherjee Jai Arjun Singh,2016-09-21 One of India's best loved film directors Hrishikesh Mukherjee is perhaps best known today for his perennially popular creations like Anand Chupke Chupke and Gol Maal. But Hrishi da's best work was provocative, wide ranging and always aware of the complexities of people and their relationships. Often combining breezy narratives with serious ideas, his films created a distinct world with recurring themes. Jai Arjun Singh looks closely at Hrishikesh Mukherjee's oeuvre from well known films like Satyakam, Guddi, Abhimaan and Khubsoorat to lesser known works such as Mem Didi Biwi aur Makaan and Anuradha. Combining a fan's passion with a critic's rigour, The World of Hrishikesh Mukherjee is a must read for anyone who takes their filmed entertainment seriously. The Aircraft-Spotter's Film and Television Companion Simon D. Beck, 2016-06-22

Ever wondered how many aircraft were converted into Japanese Zeroes and torpedo bombers for Tora Tora Tora or how French Gazelle helicopters were modified for the title role in Blue Thunder? This first of its kind reference book lists aircraft featured in 350 films and television shows, providing brief individual histories, film locations, serial numbers and registrations. Aircraft are also cross referenced by manufacturer. Appendices provide brief bios on pilots and technicians, information on aircraft collections owned by Tallmantz Aviation and Blue Max Aviation, and film credits for U.S. aircraft carriers. A

Far-Away War Ian Liebenberg, Jorge Risquet, Vladimir Shubin, 2016-01-31 South Africa's armed forces invaded Angola in 1975, setting off a war that had consequences for the whole region that are still felt today. A Far Away War contributes to a wider understanding of this war in Angola and Namibia. The book does not only look at the war from an old South African Defence Force perspective but also gives a voice to participants on the other side, emphasising the role of the Cubans and Russians. This focus is supplemented by the inclusion of many never before published photographs from Cuban and Russian archives and a comprehensive bibliography. Cytochrome Complexes: Evolution, Structures, Energy Transduction, and Signaling William A. Cramer, Toivo Kallas, 2016-06-14 An introduction that describes the origin of cytochrome notation also connects to the history of the field, focusing on research in England in the pre-World War II era. The start of the modern era of studies on the structure/function of cytochromes and energy transducing membrane proteins was marked by the 1988 Nobel Prize in Chemistry given to J. Deisenhofer, H. Michel, and R. Huber for determination of the crystal structure of the bacterial photosynthetic reaction center. An ab initio logic of presentation in the book discusses the evolution of cytochromes and hemes, followed by theoretical perspectives on electron transfer in proteins and specifically in cytochromes. There is an extensive description of the molecular structures of cytochromes and cytochrome complexes from eukaryotic and prokaryotic sources, bacterial, plant, and animal. The presentation of atomic structure information has a major role in these discussions and makes an important contribution to the broad field of membrane protein structure/function. Reconceptualizing Critical Victimology Dale Spencer, Sandra Walklate, 2016-04-13 Since the 1960s the field of victimology has developed into a variegated discipline with its own theoretical and methodological traditions. In the early 1990s two texts were published: Towards a Critical Victimology (Fattah, 1992) and Critical Victimology (Mawby and Walklate, 1994) that concretized critical victimology as a paradigm within victimology Since then the field has remained conceptually stale and with few a few exceptions there has not been a considerable lacuna of works from a critical perspective Reconceptualizing Critical Victimology Interventions and Possibilities provides a rejoinder to the two aforementioned texts and demonstrate how critical victimology can be reconceptualized where interventions can be made in this victimological paradigm and possibilities for future theorizing and research in this provocative field Reconceptualizing Critical Victimology includes eleven papers on the forms of victimization and issues pertinent to victims written by leading and emerging international scholars in the field of critical victimology It is interdisciplinary in scope and contains contributions from leading and emergent international scholars on victims and victimization Reconceptualizing Critical Victimology serves as a crucible to demonstrate the complexities of and the multitude of factors that interact to complicate victim status the vagaries of victim response and the phenomenology of violence and victimization
