Families Law Lynn Davis, 2014-05-28 This is the only book social workers need to make sense of the key elements of children's and family law. Now in a fully updated second edition it reflects recent changes including the Working Together to Safeguard Children guidelines for inter-agency working, Children and Families Act 2013 and the Crime and Courts Act 2013.

Child Protection, Domestic Violence and Parental Substance Misuse Hedy Cleaver, 2007 This book draws on a wide range of evidence to explore the facts about the relationship between substance misuse and domestic violence and their effect on children and examines the response of children's services when there are concerns about the safety and welfare of children. It reveals the vulnerability of these children and the extent to which domestic violence, parental alcohol or parental drug misuse impact on children's health and development, affect the adults' capacity to undertake key parenting tasks and influence the response of wider family and the community. It includes parents' own voices and allows them to explain what help they feel would best support families in similar situations. The authors explore the extent to which current local authority plans, procedures, joint protocols and training support information sharing and collaborative working. Emphasising the importance of an holistic inter-agency approach to assessment, planning and service provision, the authors draw from the findings implications for policy and practice in both children and adult services. This book is essential reading for all professionals working to promote the welfare and wellbeing of children and those working with vulnerable adults, many of whom are parents.

Early Literacy Work with Families Cathy Nutbrown, Peter Hannon, Anne Morgan, 2005-09-15 The Raising Early Achievement in Literacy or REAL project was the result of a collaboration between the University of Sheffield, Sheffield LEA and schools and centres across the city of Sheffield starting in 1995. For those interested in developing their own projects in this field, it will provide essential information. It contains many examples of work carried out in this project. Many examples are given that could prompt practitioners to identify ways in which they too could focus their own input with children or help their parent group to interact with their children's developing literacy. Early Years Update A must read for practitioners, policy makers and researchers interested in the detail and the theory underpinning this important family literacy initiative. Neil McClelland OBE, Director National Literacy Trust. The REAL Project is one of the best conceptualized, most intensively documented and successful British family literacy initiatives and the book provides a comprehensive overview of all aspects of this powerful project. It is essential reading for anyone working alongside families to promote children's early development. Professor Nigel Hall, Institute of Education, Manchester Metropolitan University. The project described in detail in this book is arguably the most important and well researched UK initiative for developing early literacy work with parents of young children. Readers will find inspirational case studies. There are illuminating insights into children's perspectives on family literacy including good news about fathers and boys. Don't miss it. Marian Whitehead, Nursery World. Anyone involved in the field of early childhood literacy should be familiar with the work of the REAL Raising Early Achievement in Literacy Project. Here leading members of the project team, Cathy Nutbrown, Peter Hannon and Anne Morgan
