Commentary on the Old Testament Wisdom and Psalms series The Case for a Royal Commission on the Penal System
 Louis Blom-Cooper and Seán McConville, 2014-11-19 An initiative supported by leading political academic religious and professional figures and in association with Queen Mary University of London Virtually half a century has passed since the last Royal Commission on the Penal System was dissolved its work uncompleted Looking forwards six members of the Commission asserted that after some years a new Royal Commission would be of great public service As commentators writers and practitioners Sir Louis Blom Cooper QC and Professor Seán McConville have many decades of experience of penal policy and practice Some 20 years ago they urged the appointment of a new Royal Commission on the subject They have since pressed their case in letters to major newspapers and in earlier writings In this publication the momentum for which is supported by leading figures they make the case for a new Royal Commission that will be reflective effective and swift capable of building consensus and providing directions for generations They argue that penal policy is fragmented and frequently irrational contradictory counterproductive insubstantial and put together in a haphazard way The dynamics and pressures of party politics inevitably mean that penal policy often emerges in response to hard cases and headlines As this pamphlet claims broader and more considered views drawing on evidence and seeking to maximise social good cannot be delivered by politicians afraid of missing an opportunity to score party political points Psalms LXIV-Malachi William Jenks, 1847 The Comprehensive Commentary on the Holy Bible, 1837 Hard Words for Desperate Times Caleb Gundlach, 2020-01-31 The challenge of reading the Old Testament as Christian Scripture is nowhere more evident than in the book of Ezekiel Its judgmental attitude harsh words and bizarre imagery provoke Christian readers who familiar with the gospel are unsure of what to do with such a strange book This volume from the Wycliffe Studies in Gospel Church and Culture series offers some Christ centered reflections on the book of Ezekiel showing us that even here the same God present to us in Jesus Christ can be heard through an attentive listening to what Ezekiel is saying to us From words of judgement and bizarre imagery of heaven to redemptive forecasts of a hopeful future these meditations cover the difficult terrain of Ezekiel's visions and draw out a life giving and Christ centered reading of his strange message The Oxford Handbook of Crime and Criminal Justice Michael Tonry, 2011-09-29 Although criminal justice systems in developed Western countries are much alike in form structure and function the American system is unique While it is structurally similar to those of other Western countries the punishments it imposes are often vastly harsher No other Western country retains capital punishment or regularly employs life without parole three strikes or lengthy mandatory minimum sentencing laws As a result the U S imprisonment rate of nearly 800 per 100 000 residents dwarfs rates elsewhere The Oxford Handbook of Crime and Criminal Justice is an essential guide to the development and operation of the American criminal justice system A leading scholar in the field and an experienced editor Michael Tonry has brought together a team of first rate scholars to provide an authoritative and comprehensive overview and introduction to this crucial institution Expertly organized the various sections
