Kimball's Journal* Heber C. Kimball ,2015-02-04 Example in this ebook No apology is necessary for publishing as a volume of the FAITH PROMOTING SERIES some portion of the history of the late President Heber C Kimball Knowing the estimation in which he was held while living by the Latter day Saints universally and that the memory of his virtues and life long devotion to the cause of God is still fresh in their hearts we feel assured that they will regard as an acceptable offering the brief account of his experience contained in this volume We only regret that we cannot in the present work give a sketch of his entire life or at least all of those incidents from it which would tend to promote faith in young readers His was an exceedingly active and interesting life and it is scarcely necessary to state that the sketch here published covering a period of only a little over four years contains but a fraction of that which is interesting and wonderful in his life s experience However what is here given will doubtless convey many valuable lessons to those who read it and will serve to indicate the character of the great man of whom it treats Heber Chase Kimball was one of the greatest men of this age There was a certain nobility about his appearance as well as his disposition that would have made him conspicuous in any community and the Church of Jesus Christ afforded ample scope for the exercise of his ability and the trying scenes through which he passed called into play his best powers He was a man of commanding presence with eyes so keen as to almost pierce one through and before which the guilty involuntarily quailed He was fearless and powerful in rebuking the wrong doer but kind benevolent and fatherly to the deserving He possessed such wonderful control over the passions of men combined with such wisdom and diplomacy that the Prophet Joseph Smith called him the peace maker His great faith zeal earnestness devotion to principle cheerfulness under the most trying circumstances energy perseverance and honest simplicity marked him as no ordinary man He possessed great natural force and strong will power yet in his submission to the Priesthood and obedience to the laws of God he set a pattern to the whole Church His example throughout life was one of which his posterity may ever think with pride and which the Saints generally will do well to follow No man perhaps Joseph Smith excepted who has belonged to the Church in this generation ever possessed the gift of prophecy to a greater degree than Brother Kimball Although not at all pretentious he was somewhat celebrated among his acquaintances for his prophetic inspiration The prediction which he made soon after the arrival of the Pioneers in Salt Lake Valley that the destitute Saints would soon be supplied with clothing and that States goods would be sold in Salt Lake City as cheap as in New York seemed most unreasonable at the time it was uttered Its fulfillment however by the unexpected influx of gold seekers making their way to California and anxious to lighten their loads by selling their goods at almost any price is now a matter of history Scores of other predictions were made by him and as literally fulfilled Brother Kimball was the only one of his father s family who embraced the gospel but now his is one of the most numerous families in the Church At the time of his death which occurred June 22 1868 he was the father of sixty five children of whom thirty males and eleven females were then living His direct descendants now number one hundred and seventy two To be continue in this ebook The Asiatic journal and monthly register for British and foreign India, China and Australasia ,1822 Library Journal Book Review, 1979 Jaques Cattell Press,1980-03 The Asiatic Journal and Monthly Register for British India and Its Dependencies ,1822 century influenced John XXIII and Paul VI and sat on Vatican II committees with both the future John Paul II and Benedict XVI. Fifty years on from Vatican II is a good time to remember the decade of dramatic struggle and pioneering work that preceded it and review what it accomplished. This book explores the life and work of Pierre André Liégeois presenting it to an English speaking readership for the first time. Discussing the impact and profound challenges Liégeois' work raises for spirituality and church life today, Bradbury tackles issues including the organisation of parish life rooted in theological criteria, cradle to grave corporate Christian formation, a compelling vision of what the church is for and why, and how should this be expressed in practice. Bradbury argues that for faith to match real life, the church today needs to let go of much baggage, align its talk to its action, and radically re-examine the question of what the church needs to do to conform to the Gospel. This book takes critical issues confronting practical theology and the church, breaking them open in a lively and accessible style.
