slices sure the swipes can keep it in the air light and happy but eventually sometimes that leaf hits the ground and it leaves love leaves sometimes Poetry for and from the Heart Maggie Price,2008-09-30 Poetry that comes from the heart it touches into the deepest part From the trails of life love and learning For each of us to see just how it can really be To let each of us know there is a pure glow Even as we feel alone today there is someone who can say They feel it too it s not just only you A Little Stone, Pretended to be Out of the Mountain, Tried, and Found to be a Counterfeit. Or An Examination & Refutation of Mr. Lockyers Lecture, Preached at Edinburgh, Anno 1651. Concerning the Mater of the Visible Church: and Afterwards Printed with an Appendix for Popular Government of Single Congregations

James Wood,1654 The Chinese HEART in a Cognitive Perspective Ning Yu,2009-02-26 This book is a cognitive semantic study of the Chinese conceptualization of the heart traditionally seen as the central faculty of cognition The Chinese word xin which primarily denotes the heart organ covers the meanings of both heart and mind as understood in English which upholds a heart head dichotomy In contrast to the Western dualist view Chinese takes on a more holistic view that sees the heart as the center of both emotions and thought The contrast characterizes two cultural traditions that have developed different conceptualizations of person self and agent of cognition The concept of heart lies at the core of Chinese thought and medicine and its importance to Chinese culture is extensively manifested in the Chinese language Diachronically this book traces the roots of its conception in ancient Chinese philosophy and traditional Chinese medicine Along the synchronic dimension it not only makes a systematic analysis of conventionalized expressions that reflect the underlying cultural models and conceptualizations as well as underlying conceptual metaphors and metonymies but also attempts a textual analysis of an essay and a number of poems for their metaphoric and metonymic images and imports contributing to the cultural models and conceptualizations It also takes up a comparative perspective that sheds light on similarities and differences between Western and Chinese cultures in the understanding of the heart brain body mind self and person The book contributes to the understanding of the embodied nature of human cognition situated in its cultural context and the relationship between language culture and cognition If We Fall: A Dark Romance K.M.
