Williams,2020-03-19 A tragic age and a tragic character both seemingly compelled to destroy themselves a chilling reminder of how little control we have over our fates Damon Hill One of the greatest motor racing stories Nick Mason Timely vivid and enthralling it s unputdownable Miranda Seymour author of The Bugatti Queen Dick Seaman was the archetypal dashing motorsport hero of the 1930s the first Englishman to win a race for Mercedes Benz and the last Grand Prix driver to die at the wheel before the outbreak of the Second World War Award winning author Richard Williams reveals the remarkable but now forgotten story of a driver whose battles against the leading figures of motor racing s golden age inspired the post war generation of British champions The son of wealthy parents educated at Rugby and Cambridge Seaman grew up in a privileged world of house parties jazz and fast cars But motor racing was no mere hobby it became such an obsession that he dropped out of university to pursue his ambitions squeezing money out of his parents to buy better cars When he was offered a contract with the world beating state sponsored Mercedes team in 1937 he signed up despite the growing political tensions between Britain and Germany A year later he celebrated victory in the German Grand Prix with the beautiful 18 year old daughter of the founder of BMW Their wedding that summer would force a split with his family a costly rift that had not been closed six months later when he crashed in the rain while leading at Spa dying with his divided loyalties seemingly unresolved He was just 26 years old A Race with Love and Death is a gripping tale of speed romance and tragedy Set in an era of rising tensions where the urge to live each moment to the full never seemed more important it is a richly evocative story that grips from first to last Knickerbocker; Or, New York Monthly Magazine (Jan.-June 1833 : Knickerbocker) ,1849
