Gibbo-In My Life Paul André Gibbons, 2012-05-09 Crafted with enormous appeal GIBBO is a moving account that sweeps the reader into the world of a young lad born in the Black Country of England a place rich in history and steeped in the glory of medieval times the story enhanced by Gibbos remembrances of his beloved football tribe West Bromwich Albion and his desire to bring English footy to America Gibbos writer weaves a poignant life story that will stay around forever transferring to paper an admixture of gusto humour and sadness from a broad yam yam dialect that cannot be obscured by favourite son Paul Andr Gibbons one of the Southeast USAs most popular Coerver soccer coaches Through tears of remembrance Gibbo relives the pain of loss that sends him spiraling into despondency as childhood dreams are dashed on the rocks of bereavement He takes to the soccer ball that is his bastion to the game that identifies him learning that there is eventually a reprieve and he must make the exchange of beauty for ashes if he is to move on in life Follow Gibbo as he coaches and teaches soccer in the Black Country of England in America and with his soccer camps the world over including Coaching for Conservation in Botswana Africa Far more emotional than Gibbos trials and triumphs in the world of soccer is the thought of his grandchildren a continent away growing older and taller by the day and he is not there to see it happen He learns a man's worth is not measured in dollars and cents or in British pound but in a job well done whether in Europe South Asia Africa or the USA and that the icing on his cake is an annual trip to The Black Country of England to strengthen the ties that bind François Truffaut Anne Gillain,2018-11-01 Truffaut fans will love this English translation of Gillain's work drawing on the psychology and cinematography of the acclaimed filmmaker Booklist For François Truffaut the lost secret of cinematic art is in the ability to generate emotion and reveal repressed fantasies through cinematic representation Available in English for the first time Anne Gillain's François Truffaut The Lost Secret is considered by many to be the best book on the interpretation of Truffaut's films Taking a psycho-biographical approach Gillain shows how Truffaut's creative impulse was anchored in his personal experience of a traumatic childhood that left him lonely and emotionally deprived In a series of brilliant nuanced readings of each of his films she demonstrates how involuntary memories arising from Truffaut's childhood not only furnish a succession of motifs that are repeated from film to film but also govern every aspect of his mise en scène and cinematic technique Brilliant A delicious reexamination that will make us want to sit down and take in all of Truffaut's wonderful filmography at once PopMatters Charlie Chaplin, Director Donna Kornhaber,2014-03-05 Charlie Chaplin was one of the cinema's consummate comic performers yet he has long been criticized as a lackluster film director In this groundbreaking work the first to analyze Chaplin's directorial style Donna Kornhaber radically recasts his status as a filmmaker Spanning Chaplin's career Kornhaber discovers a sophisticated Chaplinesque visual style that draws from early cinema and slapstick and stands markedly apart from later classical stylistic conventions His is a manner of filmmaking that values space over time and simultaneity over sequence crafting narrative and meaning through careful arrangement within the frame rather than cuts between frames Opening up aesthetic possibilities beyond the typical boundaries of the classical Hollywood film Chaplin's filmmaking would profoundly influence directors from Fellini to Truffaut To view Chaplin seriously as a director is to re-understand him as an artist and to reconsider the nature and breadth of his legacy My Life as a Filmmaker Satsuo Yamamoto,2017-01-03 A riveting autobiography of Yamamoto Satsuo 1910-83 one of the most important and critically acclaimed postwar Japanese film directors Truffaut on Cinema ,2017-03-06 The writings reveal a Truffaut who was as incisive and direct in assessing his own work as he was in assessing the work of other directors Choice Between 1959 and 1984 French film director François Truffaut was interviewed over three hundred times Each interview offers critical insight into the genesis of Truffaut's films as he shares the sources of his inspiration the choice of his themes and the development of his screenplays In addition Truffaut discusses his relationships with collaborators actors and the circumstances surrounding the shooting of each film These texts originally assembled by Anne Gillain and published in French in 1988 are presented here in a montage arranged chronologically by film This compilation includes an impressive array of reflections on cinema as an art form Truffaut defines the aims and practices of the French New Wave comparing their efforts to the films made by their predecessors and including comments that encompass the entire history of cinema Truffaut on Cinema provides commentary on contemporary events a wealth of biographical information and Truffaut's own artistic itinerary
