Radical Passivity Benda Hofmeyr,2009-01-21 Levinas s ethical metaphysics is essentially a meditation on what makes ethical agency possible that which enables us to act in the interest of another to put the well being of another before our own This line of questioning found its inception in and drew its inspiration from the mass atrocities that occurred during the Second World War The Holocaust like the Cambodian genocide or those in Rwanda and Srebrenica exemplifies what have come to be known as the never again situations After these events we looked back each time with varying degrees of incomprehension horror anger and shame asking ourselves how we could possibly have let it all happen again And yet atrocity crimes are still rampant After Rwanda 1994 and Bosnia Herzegovina 1992 1995 came Kosovo 1999 and Darfur 2003 In our present day world hate crimes motivated by racial sexual or other prejudice and mass hate such as genocide and terror are on the rise think for example of Burma Zimbabwe Sri Lanka and North Korea A critical revaluation of the conditions of possibility of ethical agency is therefore more necessary than ever This volume is committed to the possibility of never again It is dedicated to all the victims living and dead of what Levinas calls the sober Cain like coldness at the root of all crime against humanity as much as every singular crime against another human being happen or arrive to let or to make happen or arrive to destine to address to send to legate to inherit etc if it all still signifies between here and there the near and the far da und fort the one or the other You situate the subject of the book between the posts and the analytic movement the pleasure principle and the history of telecommunications the post card and the purloined letter in a word the transference from Socrates to Freud and beyond This satire of epistolary literature had to be farci stuffed with addresses postal codes crypted missives anonymous letters all of it confided to so many modes genres and tones In it I also abuse dates signatures titles or references language itself J D With The Post Card as with Glas Derrida appears more as writer than as philosopher Or we could say that here in what is in part a mock epistolary novel the long section is called Envois roughly dispatches he stages his writing more overtly than in the scholarly works The Post Card also contains a series of self reflective essays largely focused on Freud in which Derrida is beautifully lucid and direct Alexander Gelley Library Journal
