The Breaking of Eggs Jim Powell, 2010-07-27 Read Jim Powell's blogs and other content on the Penguin Community The Breaking of Eggs is the story of the curmudgeonly Feliks Zhokovski Polish by birth Communist at heart who at age 61 finds that just about everything he has based his life on is crumbling Separated from his family as a child when the Nazis invaded Poland Feliks is currently living in Paris and his life's work is a travel guide to the old Eastern bloc But unfortunately for Feliks it's 1991 the Berlin Wall has fallen Communism has collapsed East Germany isn't the economic miracle he wants it to be and he's forced to confront the fact that his travel writing days are numbered His guide was a flourishing business but the old pro Communist descriptions won't do for Western visitors will now be able to see for themselves So he makes the extremely difficult decision to sell his guide to a big capitalist American publisher This sets in motion a chain of events that will reunite him with a brother living in Ohio that he hasn't seen in fifty years reveal the truth about the mother he thought abandoned him and offer him a second chance with a long lost love Equal parts hilarious and moving The Breaking of Eggs is the story of a man who closed himself off from everyone and everything years ago and now awakens to discover the world has changed dramatically and he must change with it The Breaking of Eggs also has the added bonus of being a crash course in 20th century European history subtly told as a backdrop to Feliks' riveting personal story Imagine Everything is Illuminated meets The Elegance of the Hedgehog then forget all the publishing clichés and discover

No Visible Means of Support Dabney Stuart,2001 She was not there anymore She was dead He had made the mistake of reaching out for her the third time he had seen the coordinates of her presence but all he had touched was air He had fallen to his knees in the upstairs hall thinking absurdly that this giving and taking away must have been what made men believe in angels once The gust of a sob had racked him Its force had thrown him forward onto his hands and he remained like that breathless a mongrel brought to heel For the first and only time in his life he had wished to die In No Visible Means of Support Dabney Stuart s stories turn within themselves like trapeze artists passing each other in midair Stuart works without a net using anagrams iconographic details and dreams to imply connections and resolutions only to shift focus and veer off into new configurations This collection is complex yet direct funny yet profound emotional yet clever Despite all their narrative sophistication these stories always concern themselves with basic human predicaments the sorrow of loss the mysteries of creation the persistence and resilience of the spirit The first two stories evoke mystery resembling spy and detective fiction In Loose Ends the focus figure is a middle aged courier whose simple curiosity gets the better of him and turns his life upside down One Good Turn depicts an old man whose past almost overwhelms him The Egg Lady presents a successful writer who gets a sort of comeuppance in a small town when he underestimates those around him All of the stories are concerned with fate and destiny each indirectly comments upon the others While each story connects on different levels with the others none of them presents an easy way out of the difficulties that compose these fictional worlds A storytelling master Dabney Stuart threads the implicit sources of help for his characters into their intriguing earthbound lives The New Partridge
