Schalk, 2015-03-08 Why do artists poets philosophers writers and others who are usually classified as intellectuals leave the ivory tower to dirty their hands in the political arena In an effort to illuminate the intellectual s struggle to come to grips with the issues raised by political involvement David Schalk examines the life and thought of five intellectuals engag s in France during the period between 1920 and 1945 From communist to fascist these figures Paul Nizan Jean Paul Sartre Emmanuel Mounier Julien Benda and Robert Brasillach cover the full political spectrum and Professor Schalk studies their diverse reactions to the social political and economic tensions of the interwar period Broadly defining engagement as political involvement that is voluntary conscious and freely chosen usually by intellectuals the author poses the intellectual s dilemma in the following terms When we are engag he writes we fear that we are debasing our highest values when we are not we worry that we have become in Paul Nizan s trenchant phrase mere chiens de garde watchdogs He then investigates the origins and the popularization of the concept of engagement in the early 1930s the arguments used to denounce it and to defend it its different manifestations and finally its effects on the socio political actuality of the world Originally published in 1979 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Matters of Engagement Daniela Hacke, Claudia Jarzebowski, Hannes Ziegler, 2020-11-05 By drawing on a broad range of disciplinary and cross disciplinary expertise this study addresses the history of emotions in relation to cross cultural movement exchange contact and changing connections in the later medieval and early modern periods All essays in this volume focus on the performance and negotiation of identity in situations of cultural contact with particular emphasis on emotional practices They cover a wide range of thematic and disciplinary areas and are organized around the primary sources on which they are based The edited volume brings together two major areas in contemporary humanities the study of how emotions were understood expressed and performed in shaping premodern transcultural relations and the study of premodern cultural movements contacts exchanges and understandings as emotionally charged encounters In discussing these hitherto separated historiographies together this study sheds new light on the role of emotions within Europe and amongst non Europeans and Europeans between 1100 and 1800 The discussion of emotions in a wide range of sources including letters images material culture travel writing and literary accounts makes Matters of Engagement an invaluable source for both scholars and students concerned with the history of premodern emotions

Institutions in Action Tiziana Andina, Petar Bojanić, 2020-03-30 This edited volume presents the social ontology of institutions It questions what institutions are what features and properties institutions have and what kinds of institution are present in the social world The book answers these questions from both a speculative and an applied approach it argues for a specific definition of institutions as a rule based equilibria as collective epistemic agent that is characterized by meaning principles and power and as product of a We mode and an imposition of a function This book started from the interdisciplinary conference Playing by the Rules in Rijeka and contains contributions from Philosophy Sociology and Economy Institutions in Action is the first book to offer a comprehensive overview of the many different aspects and accounts about the social ontology of institutions This much needed book presents researchers a very wide state of the art about the topic of institution by presenting the many differences that emerge in comparing the different positions

Byron, Hunt, and the Politics of Literary Engagement Michael Steier, 2019-07-03 In the second decade of the nineteenth century the British press began a campaign of critical abuse against Leigh Hunt caricaturing the radical journalist as an upstart Cockney author whose literary talents were as disreputable as his politics Lord Byron on the other hand was revered as a peer and a poetical genius who the conservative press argued would never befriend and collaborate with a writer like Hunt Yet Byron did just that Byron Hunt and the Politics of Literary Engagement is the first full length study of the friendship and literary relationship of two of the most important second generation Romantic authors Challenging long held critical attitudes this study shows that Byron and Hunt engaged in a creative and meaningful dialogue at each major stage in their careers from their earliest published volumes of juvenile poetry and verse satire to their most celebrated contributions to Romantic literature The Story of Rimini and Don Juan Drawing upon newly recovered letters and unpublished manuscript material this book illuminates the surprisingly durable and artistically significant friendship of Lord Byron and Leigh Hunt The Routledge Companion to Architecture and Social Engagement Farhan

Karim,2018-05-11 Socially engaged architecture is a broad and emerging architectural genre that promises to redefine architecture from a market driven profession to a mix of social business altruism and activism that intends to eradicate poverty resolve social exclusion and construct an egalitarian global society The Routledge Companion to Architecture and Social Engagement offers a critical enquiry of socially engaged architecture s current context characterized by socio economic inequity climate change war increasing global poverty microfinance the evolving notion of professionalism the changing conception of public and finally the growing academic interest in re visioning the social role of architecture Organized around case studies from the United States Brazil Venezuela the United Kingdom South Africa Rwanda Burkina Faso Nigeria Nepal Pakistan Iran Thailand Germany Australia Taiwan and Japan the book documents the most important recent developments in the field By examining diverse working methods and philosophies of socially engaged architecture the handbook shows how socially engaged architecture is entangled in the global politics of poverty reconstruction of the public sphere changing role of the state charity and neoliberal urbanism The book presents debates around the issue of whether architecture actually empowers the participators and alleviates socio economic exclusion or if it instead indirectly sustains an exploitive capitalism Bringing together a range of theories and case studies this companion offers a platform to facilitate future lines of inquiry in education research and practice Changing the terms of women's engagement in cocoa and coffee supply chains Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2019-05-01 In this report FAO Twin KIT and other case holders take a close look at gender inequalities in the cocoa and coffee sectors and their underlying causes The included case studies are structured around four themes including women s participation and leadership in producer organisations women s access to land the household approach and innovations in extension services The report also explores how to address inequalities systematically and how to bring the solutions to scale Investor Engagement

Roderick Martin,Peter D. Casson,Tahir M. Nisar,2007-07-05 The growth of shareholder value has been a major change in Western economies since the 1980s This growth has reignited debates concerning relations between investors and managers This book argues that investors are more than passive providers of finance on whose behalf managers seek to maximize shareholder returns Instead many investors directly influence management practice through investor engagement The book examines the role of institutional investors and private equity firms two types of investors with overlapping but different reasons for engagement Questions addressed include What are the incentives and disincentives for investment engagement How is investor engagement organized What areas of management practice are of particular concern to investors The discussion shows in detail how private equity firms play a major role in developing new companies beyond the provision of finance especially in the IT biotechnology and pharmaceutical sectors The discussion is primarily based on British and US research The debate has wider international relevance because there are strong pressures for establishing shareholder value as the international norm for systems of corporate governance Following a detailed discussion of Germany the authors conclude that there is no inevitable trend to shareholder value shareholder value depends upon complementary institutional arrangements in national business systems which are far from universal The book concludes with a critical analysis of the justifications for shareholder value and investor engagement highlighting the weaknesses of both efficiency and equity justifications

Cross-Tradition Engagement on the Laws of Logic Bo Mou, 2024-06-14 This book demonstrates how through cross tradition engagement insights and engaging treatments from the Chinese philosophical tradition can work with relevant resources from modern logic and contemporary philosophy to enhance our understanding of two basic principles of logic the law of identity and the law of non contradiction The law of identity and the law of non contradiction are widely accepted principles in logic and other intellectual pursuits However there are disagreements as to how to understand and treat the genuine structures and contents of these two basic principles This book provides a holistic inquiry into these principles for the sake of enhancing our understanding and treatment of them from the vantage point of cross tradition engagement It begins by offering a philosophical interpretation of three classical texts in Chinese philosophy in their respective contexts the Bai Ma Lun in Gongsun Long s texts the Xiao Qu in the Later Mohist texts and Lao Zi s Dao De Jing in classical Daoism The author explains an innovative dual track characterization of relative identity that is informed by relevant resources from these texts as well as Western philosophical traditions He shows how this cross tradition engaging approach can make constructive and significant contributions to the jointly concerned fundamental issues of identity and reference in logic philosophy of logic and language metaphysics as well as philosophy more generally Cross Tradition Engagement on the Laws of Logic will appeal to scholars and advanced students working in philosophy of logic philosophy of language Chinese philosophy and comparative philosophy

Engagement and Indifference Henry Sussman, Christopher Devenney, 2001-01-01 Explores the hidden political and ethical dimensions of the work of Samuel Beckett an author who might otherwise be considered indifferent to such considerations
