

COURT SURVIVAL GUIDE

3. USING LEGAL COUNSELLORS

However, most of the people who have made it a point not to get involved with the legal system, will be using any court procedures, and to avoid anything to do with the legal system altogether. Let's face it, most of us have gladly left the boring and/or offensive drudgery to the lawyers, just to stay out of court. So, it makes a lot of sense to keep the company of legal counsellors, and to have them around you in your time of need. It really pays to have extra-options and to be made aware of options when you need them.

The fact is, the courtroom environment is naturally oppressive, intimidating, and humbling AT BEST. And most people are sensitive to such an environment, to the point of dealing with more emotions than they need at the moment. So the purpose of your counsellors, who are worth their weight in gold, is to keep the logical thinking process going, and to keep you aware of your legal options, while you are conducting your defense immersed in your own emotions. Although your own judgment may become occasionally cloudy or confused, your counsellors will be maintaining a much clearer understanding of the facts, the law, your rights, and they will be carefully watching the judge and prosecutor for signs and indicators. You will be able to pose the case at any time to confer with your counsellors.

4. THE BASIC STRATEGY IN COURT APPEARANCES

We always try to use the best, most effective, and direct strategy, up front at the first court appearance, so that the case is dismissed.

So, no trial, and no need here to go back. So the balance of this court survival guide applies only to other cases that have slipped thru the cracks.

You guessed it. It's another game, no more, no less. Very much like poker. The stakes are essentially your Freedom, Money, and Property vs. the court's false Authority and Power over you (the lack of a better expression). Much of your power comes from invoking your Common Law rights. And since all have received varied orders from the U.S. Attorney General, to change over to Article III Common Law jurisdiction, you may want not need to work as hard to retain your rights.

OBJECT OF THE GAME: To get out of the court system as soon as possible, by getting the case dismissed or thrown out, and the system is left with glaring opportunities for doing so. The longer you stay in the court system, the longer you are at risk, and the more money you will lose.

The judge's OBJECT is to convict you quickly and collect your money, while maintaining the illusion of Authority and Power over you. The prosecutor's OBJECT is to prove the conviction that you are guilty, at any cost (even lying) and make an psychological example of you to intimidate others.

THE PLAYERS: You, the Judge, the Prosecutor, the Jury (if any), the Officer, the other Witnesses (if any), and your Counsellors. The Judge and the Prosecutor are both experienced players, and extremely slippery. Neither can be trusted to tell the Truth, and they will most assuredly give the impression that their words are absolute Truth and Law. In addition, you can depend on the prosecutor to be unfair, devious, fraudulent, and convincing in his/her efforts to win the game.
