Greco, 2023-05-17 This book explores the college textbook publishing industry from its inception in medieval universities through the late 20th century to the present day which has led to an existential crisis for some publishers The various sections in this book offers a comprehensive analysis of the substantive developments problems and concerns about a myriad of major issues that confronted the higher education textbook sector after 2000 Chapters incorporate highly reliable textbook statistical sources as well as a review of some marketing theories utilized by these publishers e g understanding the threat of substitute products the sale of used and rental texts the sale of new digital textbooks War, Nation, Memory Keith A. Crawford, Stuart J. Foster, 2007-12-01 The Second World War stands as the most devastating and destructive global conflict in human history More than 60 nations representing 1 7 billion people or three quarters of the world s population were consumed by its horror Not surprisingly therefore World War II stands as a landmark episode in history education throughout the world and its prominent place in school history textbooks is almost guaranteed As this book demonstrates however the stories that nations choose to tell their young about World War II do not represent a universally accepted truth about events during the war Rather wartime narratives contained in school textbooks typically are selected to instil in the young a sense of national pride common identify and shared collective memory To understand this process War Nation Memory describes and evaluates school history textbooks from many nations deeply affected by World War II including China France Germany Japan USA and the United Kingdom It critically examines the very different and complex perspectives offered in many nations and analyses the ways in which textbooks commonly serve as instruments of socialisation and in some cases propaganda Above all War Nation Memory demonstrates that far from containing neutral knowledge history textbooks prove fascinating cultural artefacts consciously shaped and legitimated by powerful ideological cultural and sociopolitical forces dominant in the present Congressional Record United States. Asian/American Curricular Epistemicide Nicholas D. Hartlep,Daniel P. Scott,2016-08-18 In this important book Nicholas Hartlep and

Daniel Scott's detailed analyses on both visual and historical representations of Asian Americans in textbooks and teacher manuals used in our elementary and secondary schools poignantly tell us that generations of children are growing up being fed this single story about Asian Americans. As Hartlep and Scott write, Asian Americans have once again been constructed as the good minority that can succeed on their own and be used as a political instrument to shame the Blacks for their underachievement and their fight for equality. Over and over again the media has been telling a single story about Asian Americans to the public for the past fifty years. The consequence of this fabricated story is that it discourages others, even Asian Americans themselves, from believing in the validity of their struggles. Linshi 2014 p 1
