Preparation For Death:

Preparation for Death St. Alphonsus Liguori, 2010 Meditation on death though it seems depressing to many is essential for our Salvation Death is the one journey every man must go through alone It is the one thing that sobers us all and can set us on a more resolute path to Holiness But this path only begins after facing the reality of death for to avoid it only increases our fear In this popular abridgment of his monumental Preparation for Death St Alphonsus teaches us the proper attitude toward death which is one of readiness of always having our debts cleared Each chapter is a short consideration with three points easily understood by laity in all states of life Each point is followed by meditations and prayers for perseverance in our efforts to lead good lives To aid busy priests in their sermons St Alphonsus purposely included texts from Scripture and passages from the Holy Fathers personally selected by the Saint himself to touch the heart of every reader and listener St Alphonsus shows us how death is on the natural level a great sorrow but on the supernatural level a great gift Understanding it as a gift and implementing this knowledge in our lives is the lesson of each powerful meditation This book is a wonderful way to enhance your Lenten devotions and gain a more profound gratitude for Christ s victory over Death and Hell through His crucifixion and Resurrection

Preparation for Death Rev. Orby Shipley, 2020-09-10 Reprint of the original first published in 1869

Preparation for Death Saint Ligouri, Brother Hermenegild, 2014-11-19 SOME persons asked me to write a book on the Eternal Maxims for the use of those who desire to establish themselves in virtue and to advance in a spiritual life Others requested me to prepare a collection of matter for the sermons of the missions and of the spiritual exercises Not to multiply books labor and expense I resolved to compose the work in the present form with the hope that it might answer both purposes To render it useful as a book of meditations for seculars I have divided the considerations into three points Each point will serve for one meditation and therefore I have annexed to each point affections and prayers I entreat my readers not to grow weary if in those prayers they always find petitions for the grace of perseverance and of divine love For us these are the two graces most necessary for the attainment of eternal salvation The grace of divine love is according to St Francis de Sales the grace which contains in itself all graces because the virtue of charity toward God brings with it all other virtues Now all good things come to me together with her Wisd VII II He who loves God is humble chaste obedient and mortified in a word he possesses all virtues Love says St Augustine and do what you wish Ama et fac quod vis They who love God labor to avoid whatever is offensive to him and seek to please him in all things The grace of perseverance is that grace by which we obtain the eternal crown St Bernard says that Paradise is promised to those who begin a good life but is only given to those who persevere To beginners a reward is promised but to him who perseveres it is given De modo bene vivere s 6 But this gift of perseverance is as the Fathers teach given only to those who ask it Hence St Thomas asserts that to enter heaven continual prayer is necessary And our Redeemer said We ought always to pray and not to faint Luke XIII 1 It is because they do not pray for the gift of perseverance that so many miserable sinners after having obtained pardon lose again the grace of God Their sins are forgiven but because they afterward neglect to ask of God the grace of perseverance particularly in the time of temptations they relapse into sin And although the grace of final perseverance is altogether gratuitous and cannot be merited by good works still Suarez teaches that it can be infallibly obtained by prayer and according to St Augustine it may be merited by humble supplication De Dono persev C 6 This necessity of prayer I have demonstrated at length in another little work entitled The Great Means of Prayer This book though small has cost me a great deal of labor I consider it to be of extreme utility to all sorts of persons and I unhesitatingly assert that among all spiritual treatises there is none and there can be none more necessary than that which treats on prayer as a means of obtaining eternal salvation To render these considerations useful to preachers who have but few books or little time for reading I have furnished these considerations with texts of Scripture and passages from the Fathers which are short but strong and animated as they ought to be in sermons The three points of each consideration will supply matter for one sermon I have endeavored to collect from many authors the sentiments which appeared to me best suited to move the will and have inserted several of them expressed briefly that the reader may select and extend at pleasure those that please him most May all tend to the glory of God I pray my reader to recommend me to Jesus Christ whether I am living or dead Now that St Alphonsus Liguori is a canonized Saint we ask for his intercession and I promise to do the same for all those who perform this act of charity toward me Live Jesus our love and Mary our hope This work is excerpted from a larger work of Saint Alphonsus with the same name A Preparation for Death, 1794 Preparation for Death, 1830 Preparation for Death Saint Alphonsus Liguori, 2017-03-24 An awesome classic by Saint Alphonsus de Liguori The Great Necessity of Preparation for Death and Judgment. A Sermon Preached ... at the Funeral of Mr. John Corker Als Cor Cor of Hurdesfield, on the Eleventh Day of November 1693. and Since Revised and Enlarg'd, Etc Samuel CORKER, 1695 Preparation for Death Alphonsus Liguori, 2020-02-04 This manual of devotion consists of a series of chapters or instructions upon important points of Christian teaching which Saint Alphonsus calls Considerations As the Saint describes These Considerations are written for the purpose of pricking or of wounding the conscience that so it may be thoroughly aroused and awakened The Considerations deal with such doctrines and facts as have a universal application which admit of no dispute and which are always confirmed by some passage from Holy Scripture Preparation for Death is essentially a guide to prayer It represents from its beginning to its end the continual outpouring of heart before God an outpouring that is at times expressed in the very same words which imply a new phase of thought Regarded as a Manual of Mental Prayer each of these Considerations has a technical and special signification They treat of life and death the value of time the mercy of God the habit of sin the general and particular judgments the love of God Holy Communion and other subjects equally important Preparation for Death Alphonsus Ligouri, 2013-03-01 Volume 01 of 22 in the Aesthetical Works of St Alphonsus de Ligouri first published in 1843 Alphonsus Maria de Liguori was an Italian Catholic bishop spiritual writer scholastic philosopher and theologian and founder of the Redemptorists an influential religious congregation He was canonized in 1839 and proclaimed a Doctor of the Church in 1871 In this first volume of his Aesthetical Works Ligouri reminds the reader that There is nothing more precious than time but there is nothing less esteemed and more despised by men of the world With references from every corner of Christendom including Sacred Scripture the saints and the Holy Fathers this powerful book is ideal for personal reflection The saint writes to alert the reader to the very real fact of their own mortality recommends them to repentance prayer and fasting and to remind them that no single person is guaranteed tomorrow He quotes St Bernadine of Sienna in saying Behold I have so many kingdoms and palaces in this world but if I die this night I know not what apartment shall be assigned to me Reproduced from older English edition this non facsimile 2013 edition has been faithfully edited with 468 footnotes to provide a clean and trim appearance of the original text and to continue the proliferation of a great spiritual work A Preparation for Death ,1800 A Preparation for Death ,1832 Preparation for Death, Or Considerations on the Eternal Maxims St. Alphonsus M. Liguori,2017-10-11 Preparations for Death Or Considerations on the Eternal Maxims is a philosophical and religious work written by Saint Alphonsus Maria De Liguori Saint De Liguori was a Catholic Bishop of Italian descent who lived during the eighteenth century This work represents De Liguori s ruminations on the topic of death The book is intended to prepare the reader for the death that is imminent for all humans The author remarks early that no individual can escape death and that we must thus be prepared for death at all times The book is divided into considerations which each examine a specific aspect of dying These considerations are examined in three parts each discussing said consideration from a different angle intended to make the subject matter approachable by those in any stage of life Every section begins with a quote from scripture and closes with a series of prayers In all the author examines thirty six distinct considerations Saint Alphonsus Maria De Liguori s work is the writing of a wise man His prose is simple and encourages the reader to enter an almost meditative state While this book may appeal primarily to practicing Catholics De Liguori efforts to make his work approachable by non believers as well Few writers could tackle such a challenging topic and pull it off the way De Liguori has Preparations for Death Or Considerations on the Eternal Maxims is a deeply affecting book on coming to terms with mortality and preparing for the inevitable It is a reminder of the fleeting nature of existence and the importance of living a good life As a tool to improve one s life by preparing for death Alphonsus Maria De Liguori s book is highly recommended About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Life the preparation for Death: a sermon [on Heb. ix. 27] preached at Great St. Mary's,

Death Liguori, 1982 A popular abridgement of the much larger original that loses none of its punch Shows that life is short and Hell is real Discusses the certainty of death the uncertainty of the time the death of the sinner of the negligent Christian and of the just and how different they are Also the habit of sin delusions of the Devil Particular and General Judgments the pains of Hell and its eternity the remorse of the damned etc Powerful incentives to aim for Heaven Impr 165 pgs PB The pious Christian's daily preparation for death and eternity: extr. from Hele's devotions Richard Hele, 1854

Preparing for Death, Remembering the Dead Tarald Rasmussen, Jon Øygarden Flæten, 2015-04-22 Death and dying were not in the main focus of the denominational conflicts of the 16th century However pious literature covered these topics again and again not only before the Reformation but after it as well Here certain denominational differences are clearly visible Partly these differences consist in the use of genres For example funeral sermons are an often used genre among Lutherans while they are much rarer in the Reformed tradition Similar differences can be observed concerning epitaphs In Roman Catholic areas funeral sermons and epitaphs are common in the 16th century too but their religious function is often a different from the one in Lutheranism Beyond such interdenominational differences there are also interesting continuities and connections which the contributors of the volume analyze For example there is a certain continuity between 16th century Lutheran funeral sermons and the late medieval tradition of ars moriendi The volume contains papers presented at the Second RefoRC Conference in Oslo in 2012 and is characterized by a multiconfessional and multidisciplinary approach with contributions from Church History Art History Archaeology History of Literature and Cultural History Within a field of research dominated by specialized contributions e g on ars moriendi traditions or on specific traditions of funeral monuments and funeral sermons the broad approach of this volume may further stimulate to comparative and cross confessional reflection
