Presumptive Regeneration Or The Baptismal Regeneration Of Elect Infants:

Presumptive Regeneration, or, the Baptismal Regeneration of Elect Infants Cornelius Burgess, C. Matthew McMahon, 2014-12-08 This work by Burgess was written to prove and declare the Scriptural position of Presumptive Regeneration in administering the covenant sign on infants of believers Burgess thesis is That it is most agreeable to the institution of Christ that all elect infants that are baptized unless in some extraordinary cases ordinarily receive the Spirit from Christ in baptism for their first solemn initiation into Christ and for their future actual renovation in God s good time if they live to years of discretion and enjoy the other ordinary means of grace appointed of God to this end It also serves to separate the Reformed Doctrine from the Scripturally deviant positions of the Anabaptists Arminians and the Roman Catholic Church Burgess teaches through a careful study of Scriptural doctrine and application that the benefits of the Covenant of Grace are only efficaciously conferred by the Holy Spirit to the elect which include infants This laver of regeneration Titus 3 is found opened to us in baptism and that infants of believers receive the same benefits in the sacrament as any others This topic was debated thoroughly at the time Burgess was writing and his work serves as a Reformed polemic to those who would take exception to the Reformed Confessions of the 16th and 17th century as well as from various divines such as the early church fathers like Cyprian Athanasius and Augustine Reformers like Calvin Bucer and Beza Reformed Confessions like the Helvetica and Belgica as well as English divines of his day like Bishop Jewel Dr Whitaker Dr Fulke Dr Davenant Bishop of Salisbury Dr White Bishop of Norwich Dr Daniel Featly Dr William Ames and many others This work is not a scan or facsimile has been carefully transcribed by hand being made easy to read in modern English and has an active table of contents for electronic versions

Presumptive Regeneration, Or, the Baptismal Regeneration of Elect Infants Cornelius Burges, C. Matthew McMahon, 2014-09-05 Cornelius Burgess 1589 1665 was an active and zealous puritan a member of the Westminster Assembly and esteemed as a very learned and judicious divine This work by Burgess was written to prove and declare the Scriptural position of Presumptive Regeneration in administering the covenant sign on infants of believers Burgess thesis is That it is most agreeable to the institution of Christ that all elect infants that are baptized unless in some extraordinary cases ordinarily receive the Spirit from Christ in baptism for their first solemn initiation into Christ and for their future actual renovation in God s good time if they live to years of discretion and enjoy the other ordinary means of grace appointed of God to this end It also serves to separate the Reformed Doctrine from the Scripturally deviant positions of the Anabaptists Arminians and the Roman Catholic Church Burgess teaches through a careful study of Scriptural doctrine and application that the benefits of the Covenant of Grace are only efficaciously conferred by the Holy Spirit to the elect which include infants This laver of regeneration Titus 3 is found opened to us in baptism and that infants of believers receive the same benefits in the sacrament as any others This topic was debated thoroughly at the time Burgess was writing and his work serves as a Reformed polemic to those who would take exception to the Reformed Confessions of the 16th and 17th century as well as from various divines such as the early church fathers like Cyprian Athanasius and Augustine Reformers like Calvin Bucer and Beza Reformed Confessions like the Helvetica and Belgica as well as English divines of his day like Bishop Jewel Dr Whitaker Dr Fulke Dr Davenant Bishop of Salisbury Dr White Bishop of Norwich Dr Daniel Featly Dr William Ames and many others Primitive Baptism and Therein Infant's and Parent's Rights Matthew Sylvester, C. Matthew McMahon, 2019-10-10 Matthew Sylvester 1636 1708 was a nonconformist divine a meek and spirited Reformed preacher and scholarly linguist This rare work by Matthew Sylvester is an exegetical triumph of proper hermeneutics He begins his treatment of baptism and its implications for parents and infants by first setting down a key principle of hermeneutics He follows closely Christ's perfect method of interpreting the Scriptures against the Sadducees and their denial of the resurrection Christ uses the Old Testament Scriptures to refute the Sadducees denial of a plain text that taught the resurrection as many do in the New Testament about infant baptism Christ accuses them of both erring in their understanding of the Scriptures and the implications of denying the power of God Next Sylvester treats methodically the Hebraisms that are used throughout the New Testament He responsibly exegetes house household and other Hebraic terms that have been outlined in the New Testament referring to those having been baptized and what those terms literally mean as well as all their implications He explains such Scriptures as the account with Lydia And when she was baptized and her household Acts 16 15 as well as the accounts of the Jailor and Crispus among others As a consequence of that part of the study Sylvester then teaches the further implications of both an infant's and parent's right in the church in the sacrament of baptism He explains two different practices withholding baptism from infants of baptized parents and withholding such parents from their infants in baptism Sylvester maintains that the arguments brought against these practices are those refuted by Christ against a practice of the same nature namely that it is a putting asunder those whom God has joined together and that from the beginning it was not so His exegetical treatment of this line of reasoning is penetrating and helpful to the inquirer of these important covenant concepts This is not a scan or facsimile and has been updated in modern English for easy reading It also has an active table of contents for electronic versions Sovereign Grace Against the Gangrene of Arminianism Richard Resbury, C. Matthew McMahon, 2025-03-12 Arminianism is not merely an error it is a gangrenous disease eating away at the heart of the gospel itself But there is a cure the bible's teaching of the sovereign grace of God In Sovereign Grace Against the Gangrene of Arminianism Richard Resbury 1607 1674 takes up the pen to defend the bedrock truths of the Bible against the creeping error of free will doctrines With clarity precision and unwavering conviction Resbury dismantles the Pelagian roots of Arminian theology and exposes its implications for the glory of God the sufficiency of Christ and the hope of salvation First published during a time of fierce theological debate this work challenges free will doctrine and stands as a rallying cry for those who uphold the biblical doctrines of election grace and the sovereignty of God as found in the Westminster Standards Resbury's arguments are grounded in Scripture illuminated by sound reason and strengthened by an unshakeable commitment to the gospel of grace This book is more than a critique it is a celebration of the majesty of God s sovereign will Resbury reveals a theological landscape where God reigns supreme man s will is rightly understood and salvation is securely anchored in divine mercy For those seeking a deeper understanding of the theological debates of the seventeenth century or for anyone wrestling with questions of God s sovereignty and man s responsibility this book offers a timely and timeless response Prepare to see the gospel defended with zeal and Arminianism unmasked for what it is a gangrene on the body of Christian truth Resbury s voice speaks from the past but his challenge to the modern church is as urgent as ever Whether you are a seasoned theologian or a seeker of truth Sovereign Grace Against the Gangrene of Arminianism invites you to discover the unbreakable power of God s sovereign grace 5 Marks of a Biblical Church C. Matthew McMahon, 2018-11-07 Scripture furnishes Christ s blood bought church with everything it needs to worship God effectively with the greatest degree of honor John 4:24 The holy exaltation of God by his people is vital to giving him high praise in glorifying Christ in their worship before his uncompromising majesty Such a congregation of holy worshippers have certain qualities that distinguish them from the world In such a distinction there are five non negotiable marks of a biblical church without which a church unchurches itself These marks not only aid Christians to discern the nature of a healthy church but differentiate the Spirit empowered qualities of a biblical church from that which is false From 1 Tim 3:14-15 McMahon explains what it means for the church to conduct itself in God s house which is the church of the living God the pillar and ground of the truth He biblically and historically sets down the five invariable marks of the church Mark 1 Biblical Preaching Through Sound Doctrine Mark 2 Biblical Administration of the Sacraments Mark 3 Biblical Administration of Church Discipline Mark 4 Biblical Leadership Mark 5 Biblical Worship Ezra s Covenant Renewal and the Pursuit of a Lasting Reformation Josiah Shute, C. Matthew McMahon, 2023-10-02 The nature of covenant renewal permeates all of the bible It is the centerpiece of Jesus Christ and the substance of his covenant with the Father In Shute s work this central theme of renewal and reformation revolves around the power of God s Word as exemplified in the book of Ezra specifically chapters 9-10 The narrative commences with Ezra 9:4 where individuals gathered to deeply respect the words of the God of Israel resulting in a significant spiritual awakening and a commitment to a lasting reformation Shute underscores the significance of approaching God s Word with reverence and humility The assembly during Ezra s time serves as evidence of the spiritual power that emerges from respect for the divine Word leading to collective acknowledgment of sins and a pathway to redemption He confronts atheistic skepticism regarding Scripture s directives showing that it embodies the divine will and possesses the authority to penetrate even the most obstinate hearts if the Spirit is working Shute explores two facets of reverence for God s Word initial contrition and action imbued with the Spirit towards reform Christians are encouraged and directed to ground themselves in the teachings of Scripture to remain steadfast in the face of moral decay and sin akin to Ezra s assembly who revered God s Word after being shown their impiety against God s directives

In a fallen world marked by moral depravity Shute's message serves as a symbol of Christian hope in Jesus Christ. Embracing and deeply respecting Christ's Word will create personal and public change, advancing reformation in individuals, families, churches, communities, and in the broader world. In this, He calls upon readers to set an example for others, highlighting the lasting impact of faithfulness and its role in bringing about true and lasting reformation to the glory of God. Walking Victoriously in the Power of the Spirit C. Matthew McMahon, 2019-10-25

One of the more neglected theological topics over the past 500 years of church history is a practical theology of the Holy Spirit: how the Holy Spirit works in your life as a believer every single second of every single minute of every single day in the grace of Christ Jesus. There are some very good systematic theology books that deal in their respective chapters with the Holy Spirit as they cover the doctrine of God, and there are even some very well-written single volumes on the Spirit compiled in a systematic fashion by divines looking to give us a theological overview of the Spirit. But there are relatively no books on the Holy Spirit that take a biblical and historic confessional approach and marry that with a theology of victoriously walking in the Spirit as it relates to the abundant life that Jesus Christ has promised to his church. Jesus did not come merely to give life but to give believers abundant life in the Spirit. Is this what you experience in your daily walk? Every Christian desires spiritual victory in Christ and to walk victoriously in the Spirit as outlined by Scripture, but how would you explain that daily reliance, and how would you as a believer experience the fullness of the Spirit in your own course of life? Well, that is what this little volume is about. It is to arm you with the necessary biblical ideas surrounding a victorious and abundant life of walking in the Spirit day by day in order to please King Jesus and experience true happiness as Christ promises. It covers what abundant life is, who the Spirit is in Scripture as it relates to his work in a believer, what it means to be baptized in the Spirit, indwelt by the Spirit, anointed by the Spirit, illuminated by the Spirit, filled by the Spirit, empowered by the Spirit, and led by the Spirit. It also covers what it means to pray in the Spirit, how to exemplify the fruit of the Spirit, how to exercise your gifts in the Spirit, and how to walk in the Spirit victoriously. It concludes with a chapter on rejoicing in Christ in the Spirit, which ought to be a culmination of this abundant life for you as a born-again believer. Christians should be walking in abundance in Christ right now through the work of the Spirit. Are you? The Delay of Reformation Provokes God's Indignation James Nalston, Richard Greenham, C. Matthew McMahon, 2023-09-13

Nalston takes his text from Jer 13:27: "I have seen your adulteries and your neighings, the lewdness of your whoredom and your abominations on the hills, in the fields. Woe unto you, O Jerusalem! Will you not be made clean? When shall it once be?" This exhortation was written and preached to urge and promote the work of reformation for those who profess to be covenanters and need God's help in making the work of Christ in biblical reform a reality. He covers three important doctrines: Doctrine 1: God pays precise and special attention to all the sins and abominations of a people in covenant with Him. Doctrine 2: These sins and abominations provoke Him to express His anger in terrifying threats. Doctrine 3: Those terrifying threats pronounced against a people call for immediate repentance and reformation. After covering these main parts to the treatise he asks but how or by what means may the work of reformation be carried on both in public and private in Church and State in our hearts and houses He answers this with various motives and helps in the means which God has blessed his people To be humbled for previous failures to reflect on our vows to God to be more involved in reformation in our church and family to focus on unity for the cause of God and the Gospel and to cultivate a heart ignited with a burning love for Christ and a passionate zeal for His honor and the advancement of the work of Reformation Annexed to this work is a sermon by Richard Greenham 1531 1594 called Sweet Comfort for an Afflicted Conscience on Proverbs 18 14 A Treatise on Irresistible Grace, and Other Sermons John Preston, C. Matthew McMahon, 2024-01-18 This volume is a compilation of six of Preston's smaller treatises and sermons His first treatise concerns the doctrine of irresistible grace as a cornerstone to Christian assurance All the letters of TULIP stand or fall together regardless of how inconsistent some might be in understanding those five points of the doctrines of grace In this treatise John Preston takes to task the false teachings of the heretic James Arminius and demonstrates the error that people can hold themselves in God's grace or they can work to an end of salvation in their own strength Biblical grace is irresistible In his sermon on The Pillar and Ground of the Truth from 1 Timothy 3 15 he shows the role of the church as the truth and its stance as a pillar by the grace of God The Church is described as God's flock and the pillar of truth requiring diligent care by ministers and adherence to God's laws and His prescriptions by members In his sermon on Isaiah 64 4 A Sensible Demonstration of the Deity he tackles the wonderful doctrine of God's existence coupled with eyeing creation and providence correctly Preston emphasizes the importance of relying on the Creator and having foresight and discernment in recognizing and addressing impending dangers surrounding life's circumstances knowing full well that God governs all things In his sermon on Ephesians 5 15 Exact Walking Take heed that you walk therefore circumspectly or exactly not as fools but as wise Preston emphasizes the importance of walking with God with exactness as a manifestation of true biblical wisdom In Preston's sermon on 1 Sam 12 20 22 Samuel's Support for Sorrowful Sinners he emphasizes the importance of immediate repentance and returning to God after committing sin He argues that delaying repentance allows sin to harden the heart further and exposes individuals to more sins In his sermon on The New Life Preston explains 1 John 5 12 where the essence of life in Jesus Christ is explored in contrast to spiritual death He emphasizes that the quality of one's life is determined by their desires and actions in Christ drawing parallels between a life of sin and one of grace those in Christ and those outside of Christ

Gradual Reformation Intolerable C. Matthew McMahon, Anthony Burgess, 2014-09-28 How hard is it to encourage the people of God toward biblical Reformation and actually see it occur Is there room for a new Reformation today What should Christians think concerning revival today and reforming in the power of the Gospel Could there actually be a present day biblical reformation In the first part of the work beginning with Leviticus 26 23 24 McMahon demonstrates that Reformation ought not to be gradual but immediate Gospel truth dictates spiritual action and God requires his church to be reformed by him through the power of the transforming word of God In the second part Anthony Burgess explains Judges 6 From this text he demonstrates both individual devotion and meaningful reform within the church Set in an era marked by deep religious and societal shifts Burgess s work stands out as a powerful request for spiritual reformation He pushes believers to move beyond mere routine practices and emphasizes a genuine holiness that combines belief with action He draws attention to the current importance of a swift reform highlighting the risks of inaction and secular distractions Reformation in this way he says should be immediate He meticulously details the qualities vital for real reformation acting both as a tender minister and a biblical critic against those who reject reform in the church He spotlights the importance of understanding passion authenticity humility courage and wisdom while also warning against the pitfalls of shallow faith This work isn t just a historical or theological study it serves as a biblical guide for those yearning for spiritual growth and reform before the eyes of King Jesus

The Comfort of Christ to Weak Believers John Durant, C. Matthew McMahon, 2024-01-15 Christ is such an inexhaustible fountain that sinners cannot ever out desire His mercies He is an overflowing fountain of infinite mercy and comfort All other temporal mercies find their eternal significance in him Nothing will delight the sincere believer or be enjoyed if such believers do not in some way partake of His comfort and His tenderness They must tap into Christ's virtue How will they do this Durant's discourse explores the sweetness of Christ's relationship with weak believers addressing various aspects of this theme He shows the fallacy of Satan to keep souls from Christ and the sweetness of Christ to those in His service His work is taken from Isaiah 40:11 He shall feed his flock like a shepherd he shall gather the lambs with his arm and carry them in his bosom and shall gently lead those that are with young The structure of the discourse includes the dependence of the words their division and the doctrines derived from them His main doctrine is that central teaching presented emphasizes Christ's sweetness in His dealings with weak members Most Christians will not admit they are weak And the idea of the word weak seems to be negative But Durant's work reaches to all Christians He shows that Christ's carriage and the sweetness of that carriage is demonstrated in not casting off weak believers but that He preserves their weak graces strengthens them bears with their infirmities not burdening them with tasks they can't handle and accepts their efforts despite failings These reasons are drawn from God the Father's commission to Christ the truth of the inherent weakness in believers and Christ's intention to build them up as his lambs The discourse concludes with applications for information lamentation reproof comfort encouragement imitation and exhortation The Way of Holiness Oliver

Heywood, C. Matthew McMahon, 2025-05-13 In The Way of Holiness Heywood offers a weighty and direct explanation of the Christian's sacred duty to pursue holiness in every aspect of life. Rooted in Scripture, Heywood pulls from three pivotal biblical texts: Hebrews 10:25, 2 Peter 1:5-7, and Galatians 1:4-5 to lay out a compelling vision of the sincere believer's journey toward spiritual purity in submission to Christ. Drawing on Hebrews 10:25, he reminds us of the urgency of holiness with Christ's return drawing near, urging Christians to live diligently and fervently in faith. In 2 Peter 1:5-7, Heywood emphasizes the importance of cultivating the virtues that reflect God's nature: faith, virtue, knowledge, and godliness as essential markers of a holy life. Finally, in Galatians 1:4-5, he calls believers to remember the redemptive deliverance Christ has brought, freeing them from sin's dominion and inspiring them to live for God's glory. The Way of Holiness challenges professing Christians to move beyond a mere outward display of religion and into a vibrant, transformative pursuit of holiness lived out in community dedicated to the glory of God and characterized by a life of practical piety. A must-read for anyone seeking a deeper, more intentional Christian walk in a world that desperately needs the light of holiness. This is a call to practical Christian living and spiritual purity to the glory of King Jesus.
