Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs, 2003 A History of False Hope Lori Allen, 2020-12-15 This book offers a provocative retelling of Palestinian political history through an examination of the international commissions that have investigated political violence and human rights violations More than twenty commissions have been convened over the last century yet no significant change has resulted from these inquiries The findings of the very first the 1919 King Crane Commission were suppressed The Mitchell Committee convened in the heat of the Second Intifada urged Palestinians to listen more sympathetically to the feelings of their occupiers And factfinders returning from a shell shocked Gaza Strip in 2008 registered their horror at the scale of the destruction but Gazans have continued to live under a crippling blockade Drawing on debates in the press previously unexamined UN reports historical archives and ethnographic research Lori Allen explores six key investigative commissions over the last century She highlights how Palestinians persistent demands for independence have been routinely translated into the numb language of reports and resolutions These commissions Allen argues operating as technologies of liberal global governance yield no justice only the oppressive status quo A History of False Hope issues a biting critique of the captivating allure and cold impotence of international law Justice of the Peace and Local Government Review , 1901 The Lebanese Army Oren Barak, 2009-03-17 2009 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Oren Barak sheds new light on the major political and social developments in Lebanon since its independence by focusing on the emergence of the Lebanese Army its paralysis during the civil war from 1975 to 1990 and its reconstruction after the war He discusses the remarkable transformation of a military dominated by one sector of society the Christian communities and particularly the Maronites into one that is characterized by power sharing among Lebanon s various communities large families and regions The book develops a new approach to the study of the role of the military in divided societies by examining military institutions from three intertwined angles first as major arenas for social coexistence and conflict second as actors that are involved in politics but are also affected by political processes and third as actors that promote the process of state formation This comprehensive look at Lebanon will inform the discussion of other divided societies such as Afghanistan and Iraq that face the dual challenge of restoring the political system and the security sector after state failure and intrastate conflict Governing Gaza Ilana Feldman, 2008-07-01 An investigation into how government persists under even the most untenable conditions based on an analysis of government in Gaza between 1917 and 1967 When Parliaments Ruled the Middle East Matthieu Rey, 2022-02-02 An essential study of parliamentary politics in postwar Iraq and Syria before the consolidation of authoritarian rule under the Ba th Party When Parliaments Ruled the Middle East explores three main interrelated issues to clarify what happened between 1946 and 1963 in Iraq and Syria how and why a parliamentary system prevailed in both countries in the aftermath of the Second World War what social effects this system triggered and in turn how these changes affected the system and finally why the elites in both countries were unable to overcome the unrest that brought an end to both a liberal era and to a certain kind of political game Drawing on a vast array of sources and rich archival research in French English and Arabic Matthieu Rey highlights the processes of the parliamentary system in the modern era which are very common to post independence countries and to any representative regime He tackles the intersection of multifaceted political phenomena that were present in that moment in Iraq and Syria including regular elections the implementation of emergency law the freedom of the press the open expression of opinions the formation of new political parties frequent military coups and the joint exercise of power by members of the old classes and reformist newcomers Treating this period as neither an epilogue of the liberal order nor a prelude to authoritarianism and stressing the contingent improvisatory aspects of political history Rey fundamentally questions the transitional nature of the period and in doing so proposes new ways and tools of examining it Palestinians in Jerusalem and Jaffa, 1948 Itamar Radaï, 2015-12-14 Between November 1947 and May 1948 war between the Palestinian Arab community and the Jewish community encompassed Palestine with Jerusalem and Jaffa becoming focal points in the conflict due to their centrality size and symbolic importance Palestinians in Jerusalem and Jaffa 1948 examines Palestinian Arab society institutions and fighters in Jerusalem and Jaffa during the conflict It is one of the first books in English that deals with the Palestinian Arabs at this crucial and tragic moment in their history with extensive use of Arabic sources and an inquiry from the Palestinian vantage point It examines the causes of the social collapse of the Palestinian Arab communities in Jerusalem and Jaffa during the 1948 inter communal war and the impact of this collapse on the military defeat This book reveals that the most important internal factors to the Palestinian defeat were the social changes that took place in Arab society during the British Mandate namely internal migration from rural areas to the cities the shift from agriculture to wage labour and the rise of the urban middle class By looking beyond the well established external factors this study uncovers how modernity led to a breakdown within Palestinian Arab society widening social fissures without producing effective institutions and thus alienating social classes both from each other and from the leadership With careful examination of a range of sources and informed analysis of Palestinian social history Palestinians in Jerusalem and Jaffa 1948 is a key resource for students and scholars interested in the modern Middle East Palestinian Studies the Arab Israeli conflict and Israel Studies Forum, 1980 A journal for the teacher of English outside the United States Middle East Record Volume 2, 1961 Yitzhak Oron, 1961 Asian and African Studies, 1983 Encyclopædia Britannica; Or, a Dictionary of Arts, Sciences, and Miscellaneous Literature ... Illustrated with Near Four Hundred Copperplates, 1791 With 6th Airborne Division in Palestine, 1945-1948 Dare Wilson, 2008-05-22 The 6th Airborne Division was a major element of the British Security Force in Palestine between September 1945 and May 1948 Faced with the unenviable task of upholding the law in a lawless country the individual British soldier had to face continual opposition from a hostile Jewish community This story is described by General Wilson then a Major who served with the division during this period The mission of British forces was simply to keep the peace To achieve this goal the 6th Airborne Division conducted a variety of counter insurgency operations in both urban and rural environments These operations were designed to locate illegal arms caches limit Jewish Arab violence and capture dissidents who had attacked British positions The destruction of the King David Hotel the most famous terrorist attack of the Mandate period is treated in great detail With 6th Airborne Division in Palestine 1945 48 is a tribute to the British soldier It is also an excellent case study in unconventional warfare It will be of great interest to any student of the intricate problem that Palestine presents
