Light for a Cold Land Peter Larisey,1993-01-10 Lawren Stewart Harris artistic career began in the first decade of our century Well known for the nationalist inspired landscapes that he painted between 1908 and 1932 Harris turned resolutely in 1934 to the painting of abstractions He continued to create works that reflected his own modernist and mystical developments until the end of his life Canadians praise Harris landscapes and admire him as a planner of innovative and heroic sounding sketching trips into the North He is also recognized as the chief organizer of the Group of Seven A long list of younger artists he considered creative greatly benefited from Harris encouragement and often generous practical help many of them have been interviewed for this book In the lives of some Canadians harris still functions as a gurulike guide a role he was quite content to take on during his own lifetime because of the spiritual content of his art and aesthetic writings and the example of his optimistic vigorous and apparently untroubled life But Harris was not an untroubled life and Light for a Cold Land examines his personal crises and difficulties some of which caused important changes in his art The book also uncovers the painting styles artistic tensions and cultural dynamics of the German milieu in which Harris received his only formal art education His student years in Berlin profoundly influenced not only his art but also his artistic politics and his philosophy It is ironic that in the art of this most articulate of Canadian nationalist painters there are extensive German influences Light for a Cold Land is the first art historical study of Lawren Harris that attempts to explore his life and all aspects of his career It is based on extensive work in archives libraries public art galleries and private collections in Canada as well as research in Germany and interviews with members of Harris family and many of his friends acquaintances colleagues and critics John P.L. Roberts, the CBC/Radio Canada, and Art Music Friedemann Sallis, Regina Landwehr, 2020-10-15 This book examines the impact of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation Soci t Radio Canada CBC SRC on the development of art music in Canada during the broadcaster s first fifty years 1936 1986 In so doing it investigates the achievement of one man John Peter Lee Roberts Born in Australia he arrived in Canada in 1955 and over the next thirty years he worked tirelessly as a producer administrator and adviser at the state broadcaster to bring the music of Canada to the world and the world of music to Canadians Roberts also played a crucially important role in commissioning disseminating and promoting new music by Canadian composers 28
