The End of Mark's Story Danove, 2022-07-04 This volume generates a narrative grammar which unites linguistic structuralistic rhetorical and reader response methods and then uses it to investigate the textual indicators for interpreting the ending of the Gospel of Mark The first part of this book generates the narrative grammar in response to significant contemporary writings on methods of narrative analysis The second part provides a detailed analysis of the Gospel s larger narrative units The analysis isolates narrative units according to a consistent set of criteria grounds the interpretation on a limited number of qualifications of the implied reader indicates the centrality of the literary and rhetorical traditions of the Hebrew Bible for interpretation clarifies the model of irony used in the narrative and accounts for the negative presentation of the disciples on narrative grounds

Santa Fe's Fonda: The Story of the Old Inn at the End of the Trail Allen R. Steele ,2022-02-07 For the first two centuries of Santa Fe s history weary wayfarers were out of luck Not only did the Spanish authorities enforce a strict travel ban on foreign visitors but there was also no place to stay in the territorial capital That all changed in the 1820s When Mexico gained independence a flood of traffic cascaded down the Santa Fe Trail and the Plaza became a hub of hospitality and trade From the Exchange Hotel to La Fonda the inn on the corner of San Francisco Street represented one of the most welcome landmarks in the West Author Allen Steele recounts stories of trailblazing pioneers and the lodging on which their daring depended

Short Story Writing Charles Raymond Barrett,1900 The Origins and Evolution of the Moses Nativity Story Cohen,2018-11-13 This book traces the development of the Moses nativity story from pre Biblical sources through its Biblical formulation and continues to trace its evolution in post Biblical literature from the Apocrypha Pseudepigrapha and Jewish Hellenistic writings through Rabbinic literature and up to Medieval Jewish exegesis Influence of the Moses nativity story is also detected in Christian writings hence this book also traces the evolution of the story in the New Testament and early

Christian works This study uses a literary typological approach similar to that of the Gunkel Gressmann school and the method used by Loewenstamm However unlike these scholars and their disciples who focused primarily on the biblical stage this book gives equal attention to all stages of the evolution of the birth story pattern and while providing a detailed analysis of each work also focuses on continuity tracing the path along which the literary pattern of the Moses nativity story developed

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies

Riach,2023-10-15 Honourable Mention in the 2023 British Association for Contemporary Literary Studies Monograph Prize The Short Story after Apartheid offers the first major study of the anglophone short story in South Africa since apartheid s end By focusing on the short story this book complicates models of South African literature dominated by the novel and contributes to a much needed generic and formalist turn in postcolonial studies Literary texts are sites of productive struggle between formal and extra formal concerns and these brief fragmentary elliptical formally innovative stories offer perspectives that reframe or revise important concerns of post apartheid literature the aesthetics of engaged writing the politics of the past class and race the legacies of violence and the struggle over the land Through an analysis of key texts from the period by Nadine Gordimer Ivan Vladislavi Zo Wicomb Phaswane Mpe and Henrietta Rose Innes this book assesses the place of the short story in post apartheid writing and develops a fuller model of how artworks allow and disallow forms of social thought Story World and Photodramatist ,1924 The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik,2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada s flagship genre It continues to attract the country s most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century. A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada, the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it. The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature. For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story.

Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance, Germany. The Realist Short Story of the Powerful Glimpse Kerry McSweeney, 2007. An aesthetic perspective on the short fiction of Chekhov, Joyce, Hemingway, O'Connor and Carver. Taking a distinctively aesthetic approach to the genre of realist short fiction, Kerry McSweeney clusters the work of five masters: Anton Chekhov, James Joyce, Ernest Hemingway, Flannery O'Connor and Raymond Carver to offer a poetics of the form for students and scholars. At the center of this argument is the notion that the realist short story is a glimpse, powerful and tightly focused, into a world that the writer must precisely craft and in which the reader must fully invest. Selecting writers from different generational, national and cultural backgrounds, McSweeney chooses writers based on their commitment to the realist representation of experience and their shared belief in the importance and efficacy of the short story form. By considering their efforts in tandem, he develops a means to assess the strategies and claims of realist short fiction. McSweeney demonstrates that when the comments these writers have made about their work are assembled and critically scrutinized, the result is an aesthetic critical model as opposed to more interpretative models that focus attention on the determination or indetermination of meanings. He suggests that a fully adequate reading of a realist short story involves the integration of three components: the enjoyment and contemplation of the story in and of itself; affective receptivity or a response to the story's emotional content; and cognitive activity or the reflective consideration of the story's conceptual implications. In individual chapters on Chekhov, Joyce, Hemingway, O'Connor and Carver, this presentational model is applied to widely known and often anthologized readings from each writer. McSweeney brings into sharp focus the distinctive features of each piece, makes qualitative discriminations and assesses the profitability of other critical models. He concludes with an invitation to test the mettle of his approach in reading other realist short story writers.
