Principles of Subjective Anthropology Binggong Chen, 2023-03-27 This book puts forward the concept of subjective anthropology and outlines a theoretical system that will allow subjective anthropology to qualify as a new academic discipline in its own right In an effort to respond to the field s proper role as the science of humanity subjective analysis has been introduced into the study of anthropology The book fills two distinct gaps in our knowledge and understanding of modern man offering detailed descriptions of personality and of groups while also advancing the theory of structure and choice The book formulates seven basic principles of subjective anthropology and divides anthropology into three major branches subjective anthropology cultural anthropology and biological or physical anthropology which can be further divided into sub branches The book pursues three key goals advancing and developing the theoretical system of subjective anthropology reconstructing the discipline of anthropology and establishing a Chinese anthropology with Chinese characteristics Chinese visions and Chinese styles      The Development Trap Adam D. Kiš, 2018-03-05 A wave of optimism is sweeping through the international aid and development industry championed by leaders such as Jeffrey Sachs and Jim Yong Kim who believe that poverty eradication could be within our grasp Yet in stark opposition come those who believe that all international development intervention is hegemonic paternalistic and neocolonialist and must be done away with In this book the author argues for a middle ground Poverty is an entrenched intractable problem that will never be entirely eradicated However if we reorientate our objectives in line with realistic goals that improve the way that poverty is confronted on a smaller scale we can still continue the fight for meaningful change Using rigorous scholarship illustrated with vivid storytelling and personal anecdotes from fighting against poverty in the field The Development Trap argues that we need to make progress against poverty on the micro rather than the macro scale Instead of shooting for a single overarching end of poverty our goals must be modest and reachable      In Fraud We Trust Wes Henricksen, 2024-11-15 Telling lies and falling for them is one of the things that makes us human The vast majority of these falsehoods are harmless and perfectly legal But when someone deceives another for material gain or profit inflicting injury in the process we give this kind of lie a special label fraud Most people are familiar with the concept and understand that fraud is prohibited by law What many fail to appreciate however is that the law does not treat all frauds equally If you defraud an individual you might end up in prison On the other hand if you defraud millions of people what Wes Henricksen calls fraud on the public you might end up wealthy or powerful or even get elected president In a perverse sense the bigger the fraud the more likely it is protected by the First Amendment and therefore legal As a result many of the largest and most destructive fraud schemes are allowed encouraged and richly rewarded Examples of fraud on the public are everywhere The fossil fuel industry long used PR firms and lobbyists to spread disinformation about oil's role in climate change Sugar companies misled the public about the dangers of high fructose corn syrup redirecting the public's attention to fat Cigarette manufacturers famously lied about the risks of tobacco and opioid makers lied about the effects of the drug Social media influencers and fringe media outlets promoted false claims about the COVID 19 pandemic being a government hoax Others claimed that vaccines were part of a sinister plot Politicians on both sides of the aisle lie with such regularity that people have become deeply cynical about whether to believe anything they say Henricksen shows that large scale fraud is carried out for many reasons beyond financial profit including political gain the prevention of justice and the falsification of history In addition to exposing the depths of the problem Henricksen gives readers a way forward He proposes we call these massive deceit campaigns by their proper name that we de weaponize the First Amendment which was never meant to shield swindlers and that we enact new laws that protect the public from fraud By revealing for the first time the root legal cause of the misinformation crisis and presenting novel solutions In Fraud We Trust speaks to the present moment as it offers answers for the future      Economics and Politics in the Robotic Age

Qing-Ping Ma,2024-01-03 This book shows that the rapid development of artificial intelligence AI and robotics is a natural consequence of the development of human society It examines the history of production from the Stone Age to the present progressing from the manual age to the machine age and then to the robotic age From the perspective of economics and human physiology this book explains how AI and robotics will reshape the economy and society and how individuals firms and governments should prepare for the advent of the robotic age Campus Cinephilia in Neoliberal South Korea Josie Jung Yeon Sohn,2022-05-16 Taking a transnational approach to the study of film culture this book draws on ethnographic fieldwork in a South Korean university film club to explore a cosmopolitan cinephile subculture that thrived in an ironic unevenness between the highly nationalistic mood of commercial film culture and the intense neoliberal milieu of the 2000s As these time poor students devoted themselves to the study of film that is unlikely to help them in the job market they experienced what a student described as a different kind of fun while they appreciated their voracious consumption of international art films as a very private matter at a time of unprecedented boom in the domestic film industry This unexpectedly vibrant cosmopolitan subculture of student cinephiles in neoliberal South Korea makes the nation s film culture more complex and interesting than a simple nationalistic affair The Essence of Anthropology ,2010 Study Guide for Haviland, Prins, Walrath, and McBride's The Essence of Anthropology Gregory Stephen Gullette,2007

kulturanthropologischen Methoden und Ansätzen und fragt Wie haben die Geister den Tao in früheren Zeiten das Singen beigebracht und wie kommunizieren sie wenn jemand ein Tabu bricht Was hat Singen mit der Nutzung von Naturressourcen zu tun Und wie verändert sich das musikalische Verhalten im Lauf der Zeit Dabei wird deutlich dass ein tieferes Verständnis soziokultureller Transformationsprozesse nur erfolgen kann wenn man berücksichtigt dass zwischen Liedern Geistern und Tabus wechselseitige Beziehungen bestehen
