Reformed Preaching Joel Beeke, 2018-10-15 Preaching today all too often tragically misses the point We've all heard sermons that sound more like a lecture filling the head but not the heart And we've all heard sermons tailored to produce an emotional experience filling the heart but not the head But biblical preaching both informs minds and engages hearts giving it the power to transform lives By the Spirit's grace biblical preaching brings truth home from the heart of the preacher to the heart of the hearer Joel Beeke a pastor and professor of preaching with over four decades of experience explores the fundamental principles of Reformed experiential preaching examining sermons by preachers from the past and bridging the historical gap by showing pastors what the preaching of God's life transforming truth looks like today

Theology Is for Preaching Chase R. Kuhn, Paul Grimmond, 2021-03-10 Is it right to just preach the text Why do we preach and do theology How do we relate them And how do they relate to God's word Theology Is for Preaching helps preachers with theology and theologians with preaching Though diverse in contexts and disciplines the contributors share a commitment to equipping the saints to rightly handle the word of truth Through essays on foundations methods employing theology for preaching and preaching for theology this volume will equip preachers and theologians to engage deeply with the text of the Bible and communicate its meaning with clarity understanding of one another and writing in an irenic tone Cooper contends that these differences do still matter Throughout the work Cooper engages with Reformed writers both contemporary and old and demonstrates that the Lutheran tradition is more consistent with the teachings of Scripture than the Reformed 95 Theses for a New Reformation Aaron

Hebbard, 2017-10-09 Five hundred years ago Martin Luther wrote his Ninety Five Theses inaugurating the Protestant Reformation and with it exemplified an unflinching devotion to return to the Word of God as the ultimate authority Today the church is also in desperate need for reformation a new reformation to correct her shortcomings and meet the challenges of the day Some might see everything as fine some might see everything as hopeless and others might simply dismiss the church as irrelevant too impotent to reform herself much less to strengthen the disintegrating family or address the downward spiraling culture with a prophetic voice 95 Theses for a New Reformation confronts the necessity for reformation today head on Over thirty of today's pastors theologians and church leaders analyze ninety five current problems search the Scriptures for solutions and make sound biblical appropriations to implement into the life of the church family and culture On this 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation let us pray that the Lord will again revive his church for his own glory and for the purification of Christ's beloved bride the church And let us prepare ourselves to respond with urgency to God's call to action by reforming the church family and culture Contributors include John Frame John MacArthur R C Sproul Peter J Leithart and James White Redemptive-Historical Hermeneutics and Homiletics Yung Hoon Hyun, 2015-04-14 This book focuses on redemptive historical hermeneutics and homiletics within New Testament theology This is a valuable legacy of the Reformed tradition despite differences in interpreting and preaching Bible texts that surfaced in Holland 1920s and 1930s and the United States 1970s onwards before influencing Korean Reformed churches The background origin distinctiveness and development of these theological debates is explored and evaluated before the features of redemptive history in Korea are identified The influence of Western redemptive historical scholars on the Korean debate are also analyzed Here is a major and contemporary contribution to reformed historical hermeneutics and homiletics that is relevant for Korean Reformed churches but also for all Reformed churches worldwide Hold Fast the Faith Matthew Everhard, 2012-12-06

Furthermore confessions and creeds serve to help assure that the doctrinal faith that we articulate today has not subtly changed over time subject to the warping influence of secular society Creeds stand as ancient landmarks denoting the location of believers hearts in history Noting where one deviates from an ancient creed gives a person a distinct idea about where his or her own theological convictions stand in relation to other believers throughout history Perhaps this also helps us to discover what direction we are moving Are we moving closer to Christ To God's Word To the heart of God Himself Or are we moving further away The confession that I will be recommending to you in this volume is the standard bearing creed in the Presbyterian or Reformed branch of Christianity Influenced heavily by the thinking of Reformation theologian John Calvin 1509 1564 the Westminster Confession 1647 is a confessional exemplar of Reformed theology 2 The Westminster Confession of Faith is the premiere example of theological intellectualism absorbed in the beauty of the sovereignty of God The Westminster Confession and Calvin before it for that matter were both completely committed to the theological concept that God is sovereign over the entire universe Therefore as you study this Confession you will undoubtedly encounter the Living God as ruler of the cosmos the world the events of your life and hopefully your heart Counseling One Another Paul Tautges, 2016-02-29 This paradigm shifting book helps believers understand the process of being transformed by God's grace and truth and challenges them to be a part of the process of discipleship in the lives of their fellow brothers and sisters in Christ Counseling One Another biblically presents and defends every believer's responsibility to work toward God's goal of conforming us to the image of His Son a goal reached through the targeted form of intensive discipleship most often referred to as counseling All Christians will find Counseling One Another useful as they make progress in the life of sanctification and as they discuss issues with their friends children spouses and fellow believers providing them with a biblical framework for life and one another ministry in the body of Christ
