Caswell, 2021-10-15 Secret Societies and Classic Literature is about much more than the connections between some of the greatest authors in literary history and the covert organizations they were associated with It also encompasses sacred geometry science the ancient wisdom those authors drew on for their inspiration and how that wisdom is so relevant in contemporary society It is about prophets their visions and the probable stimulus for their vivid imaginations and creative genius It is also about political intrigue and upheaval outlaws outcasts sexual scandals espionage and hallucinogenic substances Why does the number nine indicate the possible intelligent design of the universe Why are snakes worshiped in ancient cultures that were separated by thousands of miles How did Jonathan Swift predict Mars's two moons a century and a half before their existence was confirmed Did Christopher Marlowe plot to overthrow Queen Elizabeth and how and why was he killed Did William Blake's vision of the universe's creation mirror that of lost Gnostic texts that were undiscovered until 1945 What was Francis Bacon's true relationship to William Shakespeare and his works This book takes a closer look at all these questions and reveals much more about the authors and the intriguing lives they led en route to literary immortality The Roxburghe Library of Classics, 1904 Space and the Postmodern Fantastic in

Contemporary Literature Patricia Garcia, 2015-04-24 Arising from the philosophical conviction that our sense of space plays a direct role in our apprehension and construction of reality both factual and fictional this book investigates how conceptions of postmodern space have transformed the history of the impossible in literature Deeply influenced by the work of Jorge Luis Borges and Julio Cortázar there has been an unprecedented rise in the number of fantastic texts in which the impossible is bound to space space not as scene of action but as impossible element performing a fantastic transgression within the storyworld This book conceptualizes and contextualizes this postmodern fantastic use of space that disrupts the reader's comfortable notion of space as objective reality in favor of the concept of space as socially mediated constructed and conventional In an illustration of the transnational nature of this phenomenon García analyzes a varied corpus of the Fantastic in the past four decades from different cultures and languages merging literary analysis with classical questions of space related to the fields of philosophy urban studies and anthropology Texts include authors such as Julio Cortázar Argentina John Barth USA J G Ballard UK Jacques Sternberg Belgium Fernando Iwasaki Per Juan José Millás Spain and Ric

Faye France This book contributes to Literary Theory and Comparative Literature in the areas of the Fantastic narratology and Geocriticism and informs the continuing interdisciplinary debate on how human beings make sense of space Style and Rhetoric of Short Narrative Fiction Dan Shen,2013-11-12 In many fictional narratives the progression of the plot exists in tension with a very different and powerful dynamic that runs at a hidden and deeper level throughout the text In this volume Dan Shen systematically investigates how stylistic analysis is indispensable for uncovering this covert progression through rhetorical narrative criticism The book brings to light the covert progressions in works by the American writers Edgar Allan Poe Stephan Crane and Kate Chopin and British writer Katherine Mansfield The Haunted House on Film Paul
