The Firefly of France (Classic Reprint) Marion Polk Angellotti, 2017-10-17 Excerpt from The Firefly of France: All this would have been spared me. But on the other hand I could not now look back to that dinner on the turin paris rapide. I should never have seen that little ruined French village with guns booming in the distance and the nearer sound of water running through tall reeds and over green stones and between great mossy trees. Indeed my life would now be comparatively speaking a cheerless desert because I should never have met the most beautiful. Well, all clouds have silver linings, some have golden ones with rainbow edges. No, I am not sorry I stopped at the St Ives; not in the least.
