year Ivan goes to Budapest for the summer and Selin heads to the Hungarian countryside to teach English in a program run by one of Ivan's friends. On the way she spends two weeks visiting Paris with Svetlana. Selin's summer in Europe does not resonate with anything she has previously heard about the typical experiences of American college students or indeed of any other kinds of people. For Selin this is a journey further inside herself, a coming to grips with the ineffable and exhilarating confusion of first love and with the growing consciousness that she is doomed to become a writer. With superlative emotional and intellectual sensitivity, mordant wit and pitch perfect style, Batuman dramatizes the uncertainty of life on the cusp of adulthood. Her prose is a rare and inimitable combination of tenderness and wisdom, its logic as natural and inscrutable as that of memory itself. The Idiot is a heroic yet self-effacing reckoning with the terror and joy of becoming a person in a world that is as intoxicating as it is disquieting. Batuman's fiction is unguarded against both life's affronts and its beauty and has at its command the complete range of thinking and feeling which they entail. Named one of the best books of the year by Refinery29, Mashable, One, Elle Magazine, The New York Times Bookpage, Vogue, NPR, Buzzfeed, The Millions, The first bad man, 2015.

Mommysattva Jenna Hollenstein, 2021-09-03. Mommysattva is a wise, funny and refreshingly real guide to what happens when the ideals of mindfulness practice meet the chaos of everyday motherhood. Anne Cushman, author of The Mama Sutra: A Story of Love, Loss and the Path of Motherhood. In Mommysattva, writer, meditation teacher, nutrition therapist and mom Jenna Hollenstein envisions motherhood as the most spontaneous, impossible and hard-won path to wisdom and compassion. The book is not a guide to motherhood; it's a collection of bite-sized essays examining motherhood as a spiritual journey that includes compassion and vast expansion of the heart. It explores many of the felt experiences of those who mother, from the intense metamorphosis of becoming a mother to the practice of motherhood as a teaching on what it means to be present to a mother's innately activist role in bringing about positive change. And also irritation, resentment, endless snacks and sure vomit. How to bring it all to the path without shame, virtue signaling or setting up endless years of therapy for your kid. Hollenstein, in a deeply honest exploration of her own journey as a mother as well as her Buddhist practice, offers a view of motherhood that is deep, kind and real. The essays shimmer with the message that every single thing we do as mothers is an opportunity to embrace the power, love, chaos and possibility of this magnificent path. Love, Etc. Rita Felski, Camilla Schwartz, 2024-10-17. The look of love through an analytic lens. Long treated with skepticism in literary and cultural studies, love as a subject of serious scholarly inquiry is now attracting intense interest and renewed attention. Love Etc. centers on two key themes: representations of love in literature and culture and love as a relationship to literature and culture. How are our attitudes to love changing in the wake of new technologies and social media shifting norms around partnering, marriage and divorce and feminist and queer thought? Fifteen short and accessible essays cover a wide range of topics from Tinder to The Bachelor, from liking trees to loving aliens, from unrequited love to maternal love, from polyamory to new stories of female friendship, from loving physical books to theorizing love in popular music.
