The Drama of the Double Katherine H. Burkman, 2016-04-29 This book explores the way in which doubling takes place in several novels films and dramas primarily focusing on modern drama and exploring how five Greek myths Oedipus Narcissus Dionysus Orestes and Demeter inform the literature Taking a psychological mythical approach this book explores the inner divisions that lead to boundary loss and the search for the self that may lead to boundaries found The contention of the book is that the oedipal search for self has been replaced in modern literature by individuals caught up in a narcissistic culture Katherine H Burkman explores plays by Aeschylus Sophocles Euripides Henrik Ibsen Eugene O'Neill Samuel Beckett Harold Pinter David Mamet Sam Shepard Marsha Norman and Will Eno Notes from Underground and the Double Fyodor Dostoyevsky, 2009-01-29 That sense of the meaninglessness of existence that runs through much of twentieth century writing from Conrad and Kafka to Beckett and beyond starts in Dostoyevsky's work Malcolm Bradbury Alienated from society and paralysed by a sense of his own insignificance the anonymous narrator of Dostoyevsky's Notes from Underground tells the story of his tortured life With bitter irony he describes his refusal to become a worker in the anthill and his gradual withdrawal from society The seemingly ordinary world of St Petersburg takes on a nightmarish quality in The Double when a government clerk encounters a man who looks exactly like him his double perhaps or possibly the darker side of his own personality Like Notes from Underground this is a masterly tragicomic study of human consciousness Translated by Ronald Wilks with an Introduction by Robert Louis Jackson Thunder Road and Other Stories Wayne Kyle Spitzer, 2022-04-29 From Thunder Road I don't know why we stared at that dead pterodactyl chick so long there wasn't anything particularly striking or even gross about it there were no flies for example no maggots just a couple of butterflies one white and the other burnt orange which matched the fading sunlight Maybe it was our nonstop ride all the way from Biggs Junction near the Washington border to Multnomah Falls which was closer to Portland I mean it's a lot of work peddling a BMX bicycle some 70 plus miles even across level terrain Or maybe it was how paper thin the creature's exsanguinous oyster white skin was how almost translucent or the way its little talons weren't really talons at all but little hands like a baby's hands All I remember for certain is how contemplative everyone seemed to get while looking down at it how funereal even elegiac like we were saying goodbye to one of our own All I remember for certain is something akin to holding vigil for a fellow traveler which in a very real sense we were For him the war is over I whispered although I doubt anyone heard me over the crash and roar of the falls I wonder where Mom is Not here that's for sure said Quint There are no nests I followed his gaze into the treetops and beyond to the waterfall itself which dashed and cascaded down the cliffs Weird I mean where the hell could it have come from Maybe it came from up there said Jesse From the very top There's there's a platform up there a wooden observation deck We came here on a field trip once and hiked up to it Be a good place to build a nest real stable And defensible I looked from one end of the concrete bridge Benson Bridge the sign had called it which was closed off with cyclone fencing to the other Speaking of which this bridge looks pretty defensible don't you think I peered off the way we had come Only one side to protect we can take turns standing watch I mean it may not be the Ritz but what do you say We looked around and then at each other Hell I'm in said Quint We can even build a fire and maybe eat something something hot I mean It'll be just like it'll be just like Camp Courage I couldn't help but to notice he'd stopped short of saying home and a quick glance at Jesse confirmed he'd noticed it too although whether he'd done so because his own home life had sucked or because he'd understood in that moment that because of the Flashback we'd never see home again I don't know Sure why not said Jesse We can heat up that beef stew the one we were saving for Portland We re close enough He shrugged off his pack and spear and laid down his bike And besides it ll lighten my load He dug out the can of Dinty Moore stew and paused looking at it Seems almost wasteful though doesn t it I mean you d like to think you d like to think nothing was born just to lay there and rot you know We all turned to look at the bird Yeah said Quint I mean it s like God laid it out there just for us and here we are wanting to eat something from a can I got off my bike and reached for my pocketknife touched its smooth imitation wood handle We re going to have to learn how to hunt eventually I suppose I mean I already know how to hunt said Quint And to clean and dress a I know how to do that too He held out his hand for my knife which I gave over to him slowly reluctantly And since both you pussies missed man school I guess I ll be the one to have to show you Jesse looked at me and then back to Quint Let me guess Because attributes Because attributes said Quint and got off his bike

The House of the Dead Fyodor Dostoyevsky,1986-01-07 Here was the house of the living dead a life like none other upon earth In January 1850 Dostoyevsky was sent to a remote Siberian prison camp for his part in a political conspiracy The four years he spent there startlingly re created in The House of the Dead were the most agonizing of his life In this fictionalized account he recounts his soul destroying incarceration through the cool detached tones of his narrator Aleksandr Petrovich Goryanchikov the daily battle for survival the wooden plank beds the cabbage soup swimming with cockroaches his strange family of boastful ugly cruel convicts Yet The House of the Dead is far more than a work of documentary realism it is also a powerful novel of redemption describing one man s spiritual and moral death and the miracle of his gradual reawakening This edition includes notes and an introduction discussing the circumstances of Dostoyevsky s imprisonment the origins of the novel in his prison writings and the character of Aleksandr Petrovich

Gothic Tales Elizabeth Gaskell,2001-02-01 The curse the curse I looked up in terror In the great mirror opposite I saw myself and right behind another wicked fearful self An encounter with the supernatural in an everyday setting accentuates its strangeness a truth used to eerie effect in Gaskell's Gothic tales A portrait turned to the wall a hidden manuscript a mysterious child that lives on the freezing moors a doppelganger formed by a woman's bitter curse all of these things hint at male tyranny and woman as avenging angel or devil Gaskell was fascinated by the dualities in women's lives and the way in which fact and fiction merge Disappearances a mix of gossip legend and fact relates stories of mysterious vanishings Lois the Witch based on an account of the Salem witch hunts shows how sexual desire and jealousy lead to communal hysteria and persecution while The Grey Woman explores a common Gothic theme the way in which the ghosts of the past always return to haunt us This edition includes an introduction chronology explanatory notes and an appendix giving a reader's response to Disappearances The Rig Veda Wendy Doniger, 1981 Gathers Vedic hymns about creation death sacrifice ritual and the various gods and characters of Indian mythology Reference Guide to Russian Literature Neil Cornwell, 2013-12-02 First Published in 1998 This volume will surely be regarded as the standard guide to Russian literature for some considerable time to come It is therefore confidently recommended for addition to reference libraries be they academic or public The Double Bind in Physics Education Maria Ong, 2023-05-09 An incisive study of the mechanisms reinforcing the underrepresentation of women of color in STEM fields and a call for systemic change to address the imbalance In a detailed exploration of inclusion in physics social scientist Maria Ong makes the case for far reaching higher education reform noting that despite diversity efforts to recruit more women and students of color into science and mathematics programs many leave the STEM pipeline The Double Bind in Physics Education takes readers inside the issue by following 10 women of color from their entrance into the undergraduate physics program at a large research university through their pursuit of various educational and career paths Candid interviews with these women their instructors and mentors and their peers conducted over 25 years allow Ong to trace how pervasive challenges such as navigating the intersectionality of race and gender discrimination have shaped their academic opportunities and career choices Despite the ideals of objectivity promoted in STEM disciplines the women profiled here encounter continued patterns of systemic oppression within their departments In their stories Ong identifies overt behaviors and microaggressions that harass exclude and otherwise disadvantage women of color and members of other minoritized groups Ong also shows how aids such as student support programs peer groups allies and mentors which are centered on the individual can go only so far toward a sustainable solution In order to provide equitable opportunities she argues greater work must be done to dismantle institutional norms and replace them with a culture of inclusion The Words of My Bones and Other Stories Nathan Pitchford, 2019-03-14 Dark disturbing and oftentimes bizarre these highly polished widely disparate short stories tell the meta story of one man's descent into depression madness and suicide and hint at a golden beyond All Stories Are True Tracie Church Guzzio, 2011-05-17 In All Stories Are True Tracie Church Guzzio provides the first full length study of John Edgar Wideman's entire oeuvre to date Specifically Guzzio examines the ways in which Wideman b 1941 engages with three crucial themes history myth and trauma throughout his career showing how they intertwine Guzzio argues that for four decades the influential African American writer has endeavored to create a version of the African American experience that runs counter to mainstream interpretations using history and myth to confront and then heal the trauma caused by slavery and racism Wideman's work intentionally blurs boundaries between fiction and autobiography myth and history particularly as that history relates to African American experience in his hometown of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania The fusion of fiction national history and Wideman's personal life is characteristic of his style which due to its complexity and smudging of genre distinctions has presented analytic difficulties for literary scholars Despite winning the PEN Faulkner award twice for Sent for You Yesterday 1984 and Philadelphia Fire 1990 Wideman remains understudied Of particular value is Guzzio's analysis of the many ways in which Wideman alludes to his previous works This intertextuality allows Wideman to engage his books in direct intentional dialogue with each other through repeated characters images folktales and songs In Wideman's challenging of a monolithic view of history and presenting alternative perspectives to it and his allowing past present and future time to remain fluid in the narratives Guzzio finds an author firm in his notion that all stories and all perspectives have merit

Narrative Elements in the Double Tradition Stephen Hultgren, 2014-11-27 For a long time mainstream gospel scholarship has assumed that the so-called Q material the double tradition in Matthew and Luke represents a document or tradition that was almost exclusively orientated towards the sayings of Jesus of Nazareth with little interest in a narrative about him This book argues on the contrary that the narrative material in the double tradition existed from the very beginning within a coherent Jesus narrative that ran from his baptism to his passion Far from being inserted by Matthew and Luke into the framework of Mark the double tradition is structured on the very same narrative framework as the Gospel of Mark a framework that predates Mark Conventional dichotomies in gospel origins the historical Jesus and the history of early Christianity are thus drawn into question
