Veronica who is at Meriwell Hall as David's behest David calls on his friends Barnaby and Penelope Adair for assistance. However, as the fateful dinner was the first of a house party being attended by the local MP and his family, the Metropolitan Police commissioners also consider the Adairs' presence desirable and consequently Barnaby and Penelope accompany Stokes to Meriwell Hall. There they discover a gathering of the Meriwell family intended to impress the visiting Busseltons so that George Busselton, local MP, will agree to a marriage between his daughter and Lord Meriwell's eldest nephew, Stephen. But instead of any pleasant sojourn, the company find themselves confined to the hall and grounds while Stokes, Barnaby and Penelope set about interviewing everyone and establishing facts, alibis and the movements of those in the house. To our investigators' frustration, while determining the means proves straightforward and opportunity reduces their suspect list, motive remains elusive and their list of suspects stays stubbornly long. Then the killer strikes again, but even then the investigators are left with the same suspects and too many potential reasons for the second death. What did the killer hope to gain? More importantly, will he kill again? At last the investigators stumble on a promising clue, yet following it requires sending to London for information and their frustration builds. As the clock ticks and they doggedly forge on, they uncover more and more facts, yet none allows them to identify which of their prime suspects is the murderer. Will they get the breakthrough they need, one sufficient to exonerate the innocent? When the answer arrives, they discover that the Meriwell family legacies are more far-reaching than anyone realized and that the crimes involved and the motivation for the murders is far more heinous than anyone imagined.

After a decade of captaining diplomatic voyages for Frobisher Shipping alongside covert missions for the Crown, Captain Robert Frobisher decides that establishing a home with hearth and wife should be his next challenge. But an unexpected mission intervenes. Although Robert sees himself as a conservative businessman cum diplomat and this mission is far from his usual sphere, it nevertheless falls within the scope of his abilities. As matters are urgent, he agrees to depart for West Africa forthwith. To Robert, his way forward is clear: Get to Freetown, determine the location of a slavers' camp, return to London with the information and then proceed to find himself a wife. Already in Freetown, Miss Aileen Hopkins is set on finding her younger brother, Will, a naval lieutenant who has mysteriously disappeared. Accustomed to managing diplomats and bureaucrats, Robert discovers that manipulating a twenty-seven year old spinster lies outside his area of expertise. Prodded by an insistent need to protect Aileen, he realizes that joining forces with her is the surest path to meeting all the challenges before him completing his mission keeping her safe and securing the woman he wants as his wife But the villains strike and disrupt their careful plans leaving Robert and Aileen no choice but to attempt a last throw of the dice to complete his mission and further her brother's rescue Compelled to protect those weaker than themselves and bring retribution to a heartless enemy they plunge into the jungle with only their talents and inner strengths to aid them and with the courage of their hearts as their guide The first voyage is one of exploration the second one of discovery The third journey brings maturity while the fourth is a voyage of second chances Continue the journey and follow the adventure the mystery and the romances to the riveting end A historical novel of 120 000 words interweaving romance high adventure and intrigue
