Green, Jacqueline Lapsley, Rebekah Miles, Allen Verhey, 2011-11 Leading scholars from the fields of biblical studies and ethics provide a one stop reference book on the vital relationship between Scripture and ethics History of the War in Afghanistan, Vol. II (of 3) John William Kaye, 2015-11-02 Example in this ebook CHAPTER I 1841 1842 At this time the Governor General and his family were resident at Calcutta The period of Lord Auckland s tenure of the vice regal office was drawing to a close He was awaiting the arrival of his successor It had seemed to him as the heavy periodical rains began slowly to give place to the cool weather of the early winter that there was nothing to overshadow the closing scenes of his administration and to vex his spirit with misgivings and regrets during the monotonous months of the homeward voyage The three first weeks of October brought him only cheering intelligence from the countries beyond the Indus The Envoy continued to report with confidence the increasing tranquillity of Afghanistan The Douranee insurrection seemed to have been suppressed and there was nothing stirring in the neighbourhood of Caubul to create anxiety and alarm But November set in gloomy and threatening The clouds were gathering in the distance It now seemed to Lord Auckland that his administration was doomed to close in storm and convulsion Intelligence of the Ghilzye outbreak arrived It was plain that the passes were sealed for there were no tidings from Caubul There might be rebellion and disaster at the capital our communications were in the hands of the enemy and all that was known at Calcutta was that Sale s brigade had been fighting its way downwards and had lost many men and some officers in skirmishes with the Ghilzye tribes which had seemingly been productive of no important results There was something in all this very perplexing and embarrassing Painful doubts and apprehensions began to disturb the mind of the Governor General It seemed to be the beginning of the end Never was authentic intelligence from Caubul looked for with so much eager anxiety as throughout the month of November When tidings came at last only too faithful in their details of disaster they came in a dubious unauthoritative shape and for a time were received with incredulity At the end of the third week of November letters from Meerut Kurnaul and other stations in the upper provinces of Hindostan announced that reports had crossed the frontier to the effect that there had been a general rising at Caubul that the city had been fired and that Sir Alexander Burnes had been killed Letters to this effect reached the offices of the public journals but no intelligence had been received at Government House and a hope was expressed in official quarters that the stories in circulation were exaggerated native rumours But a day or two afterwards the same stories were repeated in letters from Mr George Clerk the Governor General s agent on the north western frontier and from Captain Mackeson at Peshawur and the intelligence came coupled with urgent requisitions for the despatch of reinforcements to Afghanistan To be continue in this ebook KEIGWIN'S REBELLION (1683-4)

Gowan,1998-08-01 Donald Gowan offers a unified reading of the prophetic books showing that each has a distinctive contribution to make to a central theme These books Isaiah through Malachi respond to three key moments in Israel s history the end of the Northern Kingdom in 722 BCE the end of the Southern Kingdom in 587 BCE and the beginning of the restoration from the Babylonian exile in 538 BCE Gowan traces the theme of death and resurrection throughout these accounts finding a symbolic message of particular significance to Christian interpreters of the Bible Hate and Enmity in Biblical Law Klaus-Peter Adam,2022-05-19 Enmity between individuals was an ubiquitous phenomenon in the ancient world

Using the method of legal anthropology this book examines patterns of hate driven feuding in kinship based and segmentary societies and applies these insights to biblical law It defines the fundamental categories of enmity love revenge honor and shame in the context of feuding and it illustrates certain legal actions such giving false witness and shows how they are expressions of hateful relationships Adam proposes that we should understand hate between individuals as a legal construct that becomes visible when lived out as private enmity a social status that exhibits distinct hallmarks In kinship based societies private hate enmity was publicly declared and consequently was publicly known in one s own kin and beyond Private enmity was acted out in feud like patterns with a flexibility that allowed opponents to choose between various measures to hurt their opponent Acting out hate was reciprocal and it typically escalated and swiftly expanded into one party s attempt to kill the other and to trigger a blood feud Finally private enmity was transitive in the sense that opponents at enmity naturally expected solidarity from kin and friends Adam uses textual analysis to illustrate how the legal construct of hate informs biblical law from the Covenant Code to Deuteronomic and Priestly Legislation including the Holiness Code He also demonstrates how hate forms the backdrop of conflict settlement Ultimately by ways of tracing back through the category of private hate and enmity this book unpacks the meaning of the quintessential command to Love your neighbor
