At the Center Casey Nelson Blake, Daniel H. Borus, Howard Brick, 2019-12-03 At a time when American political and cultural leaders asserted that the nation stood at the center of world awareness thinkers and artists sought to understand and secure principles that lay at the center of things From the onset of the Cold War in 1948 through 1963 they asked What defined the essential character of American culture Could permanent moral standards guide human conduct amid the flux and horrors of history In what ways did a stable self emerge through the life cycle Could scientific method rescue truth from error illusion and myth Are there key elements to democracy to the integrity of a society to order in the world Answers to such questions promised intellectual and moral stability in an age haunted by the memory of world war and the possibility of future devastation on an even greater scale Yet other key figures rejected the search for a center asserting that freedom lay in the dispersion of cultural energies and the plurality of American experiences In probing the centering impulse of the era At the Center offers a unique perspective on the United States at the pinnacle of its power

Josef Albers, Late Modernism, and Pedagogic Form Jeffrey Saletnik, 2022-10-13 An incisive analysis of the pedagogy of influential artist and teacher Josef Albers An extraordinary teacher whose influence continues today Josef Albers helped shape the Bauhaus school in Germany and established the art and design programs at Black Mountain College in North Carolina and Yale University His books about color theory have informed generations and his artworks are included in the canon of high modernist non representational art The pedagogy Albers developed was a dynamic approach to teaching that transcended the modernist agendas and cultivated a material way of thinking among his students With this book Jeffrey Saletnik explores the origins of Albers's teaching practices and their significance in conveying attitudes about form material and sensory understanding to artists Eva Hesse and Richard Serra He demonstrates how pedagogy is a framework that establishes the possibility for artistic discourse and how the methods through which artists learn are manifested in their individual practices Tracing through lines from Albers's training in German educational traditions to his influence on American postwar art Josef Albers Late Modernism and Pedagogic Form positions Albers's pedagogy as central to the life of modernism

Domesticating the Invisible Melissa S. Ragain, 2021-01-12 Domesticating the Invisible examines how postwar notions of form developed in response to newly perceived environmental threats in turn inspiring artists to model plastic composition on natural systems often invisible to the human eye Melissa S Ragain focuses on the history of art education in Cambridge Massachusetts to understand how an environmental approach to form inspired new art programs at Harvard and MIT As they embraced scientific theories of composition these institutions also cultivated young artists as environmental agents who could influence urban design and contribute to an ecologically sensitive public sphere Ragain combines institutional and intellectual histories to map how the emergency of environmental crisis altered foundational modernist assumptions about form transforming questions about aesthetic judgment into questions about an ethical relationship to the environment

Émigré Cultures in Design and Architecture Alison J. Clarke, Elana Shapira, 2017-11-02 This new volume addresses the lasting contribution made by Central European migr designers to twentieth century American design and architecture The contributors examine how oppositional stances in debates concerning consumption and modernism's social agendas taken by designers such as Felix Augenfeld Joseph Binder Josef Frank Paul T Frankl Frederick Kiesler Richard Neutra and R M Schindler in Europe prefigured their later adoption or rejection by American culture They argue that migr's and refugees from fascist Europe such as Gyrgy Kepes Paul L szl Victor Papanek Bernard Rudofsky Xanti Schawinsky and Eva Zeisel drew on the particular experiences of their home countries and networks of migr and exiled designers in the United States to develop a humanist progressive and socially inclusive design culture which continues to influence design practice today

Advocating Heightened Education Kathleen F. McConnell, 2020-08-20 Colleges and universities face unprecedented pressure to streamline and reduce their infrastructure A new generation of reformers frustrated by bureaucratic obstacles and rising costs dream of education without schools Those reforms if realized promise to render education indistinguishable from other social spheres Advocating Heightened Education mobilizes situated theories of learning to advocate the labor and expense that goes into maintaining campuses Higher education's bulky and incommensurable institutions from the community colleges and Ivy Leagues to the regional public universities and small liberal arts campuses serve a critical modality They ensure that educational forms remain visible and available for critique Their diversity of form retains the possibility of divergent and transformative educational futures This ethnographic and archival study of two alternative campuses The Evergreen State College and California State University Monterey Bay illustrates how educators advocate their work by heightening its visibility and by modeling appreciation for situated teaching and inquiry It provides examples of those advocacy techniques with stories of professional life and close readings of historical documents that include institutional and legislative reports facilities memoranda and course descriptions These materials offer a vibrant counter narrative to reform movements that seek to standardize the college experience Scholars of higher education pedagogy and communication will find this book particularly interesting
