Sin, the Human Predicament, and Salvation in the Gospel of John Mathew E.

Sousa,2021-08-12 Mathew E Sousa demonstrates that in certain respects John s doctrine of salvation fails to align with its customary depiction in Johannine scholarship Sousa suggests that according to John the human predicament is not merely unbelief or a lack of mental perception and Jesus s mission consists not merely of revelation and or a purely forensic atonement Rather Jesus is for John the one who makes true and everlasting life an accomplished fact for humanity and in doing so Jesus reveals the true nature of the predicament from which he saves Sousa argues that salvation in the Gospel of John concerns ethics and the quality or condition of human corporeality The matters of sin and death in particular also make clear that according to John the human predicament is a reality that in various ways persists for believers as they both are and become children of God Sousa thus concludes that salvation for John consists of far more than the emergence of belief in a moment of decision
