The Guardian Media Guide 2009:

Focus On: 100 Most Popular French-language Films Wikipedia contributors, Audiovisual Regulation under Pressure Thomas Gibbons, Peter Humphreys, 2012-03-15 In the face of globalization and new media technologies can policy makers and regulators withstand deregulatory pressures on the cultural policy toolkit for television This comparative study provides an interdisciplinary investigation of trends in audiovisual regulation with the focus on television and new media It considers pressures for deregulation and for policy in this field to prioritise market development and economic goals rather than traditional cultural and democratic objectives notably public service content the promotion of national and local culture media pluralism and diversity The book explores regulatory policy in the United States Canada the United Kingdom and Europe The book focuses on a range of instruments designed for promoting pluralism and cultural diversity particularly the role of public service broadcasting and the range of measures available for promoting cultural policy goals such as subsidies scheduling and investment quotas as well as particularly national media ownership rules The book draws on findings of two research projects funded by the UK Economic and Social Research Council and is written in an accessible style by leading scholars of media law and policy who bring to bear insights from their respective disciplines of law and political science

How to Get a Job in Television Elsa Sharp, 2014-03-10 Incredibly timely practical advice for developing contacts and skills Jo Taylor 4Talent Manager at Channel 4 TV is a notoriously difficult industry to get into and progress within There is no set career path and 70% of applicants rely on contacts to get a foothold Based on the author's experience as a TV researcher series producer and recruitment executive this contemporary guide will help thousands of hopefuls break into TV It is packed with inside information and advice from training bodies HR executives and people working in the industry at every level including for example Conrad Green the multi award winning British Executive Producer of American Idol and Dancing With the Stars US Tim Hincks Chairman of Endemol makers of Big Brother Grant Mansfield Chairman and MD of RDF Television Kate Phillips Head of Development at BBC TV From the do's and don'ts of work experience the role of the researcher the seven stages of CV pathways to series producer and how to move up the ladder this is the TV job hunter's bible Do You Web 2.0? Linda Berube, 2011-05-03 Web 2.0 technology is a hot topic at the moment and public librarians in particular are beginning to feel the pressure to apply these tools Indeed Web 2.0 has the potential to transform library services but only if the policy and strategy for those services are ready to be transformed The author not only reviews these tools and provides practical advice and case studies on how they can be applied in the public library setting but also recommends the policies and business cases that begin to create a new strategy for public libraries Particularly geared to the public library setting Advice on using in conjunction or integrated with other public library services Examples of best practice Global Media Ethics Stephen J. A. Ward, 2013-01-09 Global Media Ethics Global Media Ethics Problems and Perspectives The book pleads convincingly that news media outlets and practitioners should urgently reconsider their practices and norms in a world gone global and digitally convergent The various contributions broach the topic from completely different perspectives to create a very stimulating and constructive framework to identify and face the new ethical challenges of journalism and the news media François Heinderyckx Université libre de Bruxelles News that crosses boundaries of culture and geography means rethinking media ethics The demands of role audience digital transmission and an industry under fierce economic pressure require the insightful approach to ethical thinking this volume provides From theory to practice this book has something for scholars and professionals alike Lee Wilkins Journal of Mass Media Ethics Global Media Ethics is a cross cultural exploration of the conceptual and practical issues facing media ethics in a global world Focusing on the ethical concepts principles and questions in an era of major change this unique textbook explores the aims and norms that should guide the publication of stories that impact across borders and which affect a globally linked pluralistic world Through case studies analysis of emerging practices and theoretical discussion a team of leading journalism and communication experts investigate the impact of major global trends on responsible journalism and lead readers to better understand changes in media ethics Chapters look at how these changes promote or inhibit responsible journalism how such changes challenge existing standards and how media ethics can develop to take account of global news media In light of the fact that media journalism is now and will increasingly become multimedia in format and global in its scope and influence the book argues that global media impact entails global responsibilities It is therefore critical that media ethics rethinks its basic notions standards and practices from a more cosmopolitan perspective

Radiohead, International News in the Digital Age Judith Clarke, Michael Bromley, 2012-01-25 The new research presented in this volume suggests that general perceptions cultural psychological geographical allied to the customs and values of journalism and underpinned by the uses of technology significantly shape international news This gives rise to a blend of the old and the new traditions of cultural centredness and innovative practices anchorages of place and the rootlessness of globalization Technology per se has not swept all before it On the other hand its uses have altered the means and methods of international news sourcing construction and dissemination Consequently the uptake of technology has contributed to fundamental changes in style and form and has greatly facilitated cross cultural exchanges The category international news is now more of a hybrid as recognized by the BBC and others The chapters in this book demonstrate that this hybridity is unevenly distributed across geo political domains and often across time Nevertheless as the contributors to this volume show the concept of international news relies on tightly interwoven elements of orthodox journalism social media civic expression and public assembly

The War Against the BBC Patrick Barwise, Peter York, 2020-11-19 There s a war on against the BBC It is under threat as never before And if we lose it we won t get it back The BBC is our most important cultural institution our best value entertainment provider and the global face of Britain It s our most trusted news source in a world of divisive disinformation But it is facing relentless attacks by powerful commercial and political enemies including deep funding cuts much deeper than most people realise with imminent further cuts threatened This book busts the myths about the BBC and shows us how we can save it before it s too late
