Critical Perspectives on Caribbean Literature and Culture Dorsía

Smith, Tatiana Tagirova, 2011-01-18 Critical Perspectives on Caribbean Literature and Culture is a collection of a dozen essays by Caribbean scholars living in the Caribbean and around the world. Each of the three sections of the book explores the Caribbean as a diasporic space through the lenses of literary and cultural systems. Negotiating Borders: Women, Sexuality and Identity examines the creolized identities of Caribbean societies, gender roles of women, impact of sexual tourism and censorship of Latino gays and lesbians. The essayists in this section note that much work still needs to be done in academia to give voice to repressed Caribbean populations. Creating Spaces of Caribbean Artistic Expression: Multiple Representations focuses on how music, identity, art and language depict the diversity of the Caribbean experience. In this section, the essayists examine how the process of creation extends to new cultural expressions. Deconstructing the Diaspora: Caribbean Writers as Political Activists takes into account the tension between oppressor and oppressed, a pressing issue for many Caribbean authors, and focuses on the role of writers in reconstructing Caribbean culture, politics and history. In pursuit of a more comprehensive West Indian view, this publication provides a novel perspective on Caribbean literary, cultural and historical experience. The essays featured complement each other in their representation of the multiplicitous Caribbean region with all its claims and anxieties. They cover a wide range of writers and diverse cross-cultural encounters within the Caribbean region and reflect on issues such as Caribbean identity, migration and artistic form of expression. This publication cuts across geographies, cultures and disciplines, enriching Caribbean scholarship by recognizing the Caribbean's tradition of resistance and courage.
