Historical Performance and New Music Rebecca Cypess, Estelí Gomez, Rachael Lansang, 2023-11-30 The worlds of new music and historically informed performance might seem quite distant from one another Yet upon closer consideration clear points of convergence emerge Not only do many contemporary performers move easily between these two worlds but they often do so using a shared ethos of flexibility improvisation curiosity and collaboration collaboration with composers past and present with other performers and with audiences Bringing together expert scholars and performers considering a wide range of issues and case studies Historical

Performance and New Music the first book of its kind addresses the synergies in aesthetics and practices in historical performance and new music The essays treat matters including technologies and media such as laptops printing presses and graphic notation new music written for period instruments from natural horns to the clavichord personalities such as the pioneering singer Cathy Berberian the musically omnivorous ensembles A Far Cry and Roomful of Teeth and composers Luciano Berio David Lang Molly Herron Caroline Shaw and many others Historical Performance and New Music presents pathbreaking ideas in an accessible style that speaks to performers composers scholars and music lovers alike Richly documented and diverse in its methods and subject matter this book will open new conversations about contemporary musical life
