Disciplinary Literacy ReLeah Cossett Lent, 2015-08-27. Think you understand Disciplinary Literacy? Think again. In this important reference content, teachers and other educators explore why students need to understand how historians, novelists, mathematicians, and scientists use literacy in their respective fields. ReLeah shows how to teach students to evaluate and question evidence, science, compare sources, and interpret events. History: Favor accuracy over elaboration. Math: Attune to voice and figurative language. ELA: Women Who Kill David Roche, Cristelle Maury, 2020-02-20. Women Who Kill explores several lines of inquiry: the female murderer as a figure that destabilizes order, the tension between criminal and victim, the relationship between crime and expression, or the lack thereof, and the paradox whereby a crime can be both an act of destruction and a creative assertion of agency. In doing so, the contributors assess the influence of feminist, queer, and gender studies on mainstream television and cinema, notably in the genres film noir, horror, melodrama, that have received the most critical attention from this perspective. They also analyse the politics of representation by considering these works of fiction in their contexts and addressing some of the ambiguities raised by postfeminism. The book is structured in three parts: Neo femmes Fatales Action Babes and Monstrous Women Films and series examined include White Men Are Cracking Up 1994 Hit Gone Girl 2014 Terminator 1984 The Walking Dead 2010 Mad Max Fury Road 2015 Contagion 2011 and Ex Machina 2015 among others
