

The Great Gatsby Journal Questions

1. What is the American Dream? What does it take to achieve this dream? Who determines your success in this dream — you or others?
2. Write about dreams or wishes that you once had that you now know were unrealistic or foolish. What have you learned since those days?
3. Choose one of your fantasies about what your life will be like in 20 years from now and write about it using specific details. You are around 35 or 37 — tell me all the important facts about your life. How will your world be different?
4. Write a recipe for your American Dream:
Example: 2 cups perseverance
1 1/4 cups of courage
A pinch of luck
Combine ingredients and wait 10 years, stirring occasionally and adding extra ingredients as needed.
5. Write about a dream that you have already accomplished. Describe the challenges you faced in realizing this dream and how you felt when you accomplished it.
6. Write your obituary. What details, accomplishments, family members will be emphasized?
7. The Great Gatsby abounds with icons of the 1920s — Gatsby's car, jazz, and women's dresses. List some objects that typify the current decade, and incorporate as many of them as is reasonably possible into a few paragraphs describing a day in your life.
8. How do you feel about the characters that you have met in The Great Gatsby so far? Do any of the characters remind you of anybody that you know? How have the female characters been portrayed so far?
9. Literature often reflects the time period in which it is created. What have you learnt or did you already know about the period in which The Great Gatsby was written?
10. What are your impressions of Gatsby? Do you believe the account of his past? Why/why not? Given Gatsby's story, what do you think will happen next in the novel?
