1. "Board-Less Organizations" refers particularly to non-profits and social enterprises, but also extends to for-profit entities as well as public and private educational institutions, given the similarities in their mission to provide services.
2. Other for-profit organizations may also have a "Board of Directors" (or a similar governing body).
3. Not-for-profit Boardless Organizations may have governance structures, and they are not intended to diminish the ability of the organization to remain non-profit and non-commercial.
