Normalizing an American Right to Health Christina S. Ho, 2023 Normalizing an American Right to Health argues against the conventional wisdom that a U S right to health is out of reach It shows that the necessary change is not extraordinary but familiar and that the law has already laid considerable groundwork in ordinary statutes and case law The book moves from the descriptive task of showing where a right to health already exists in our legal corpus to the prescriptive goal of showing how we could feasibly and meaningfully expand the right through ordinary policies that are widely used in other domains including impact assessments and state sponsored reinsurance

Reexamining the Federal Role in Higher Education Rebecca S. Natow, 2022 This book provides a comprehensive description of the federal government's relationship with higher education and how that relationship became so expansive and indispensable over time Drawing from constitutional law social science research federal policy documents and original interviews with key policy insiders the author explores the U S government's role in regulating financing and otherwise influencing higher education Natow analyzes how the government's role has evolved over time the activities of specific governmental branches and agencies that affect higher education the nature of the government's role in higher education today and prospects for the future of federal involvement in higher education Chapters examine the politics and practices that shape policies affecting nondiscrimination and civil rights student financial aid educational quality and student success campus crime research and development intellectual property student privacy and more

The Role of Leaders and Actors in Academy-Business Partnerships: Issues of Risk, Trust, Power, Ethics, and Cooperation Clevenger, Morgan R., Kretovics, Mark, Watts, Jessica Shepard, 2024-09-17 In academic business partnerships many challenges plague both sides of the equation From navigating complex power dynamics to ensuring ethical conduct managing risk and fostering trust these collaborations often seem to walk a tightrope without a safety net The critical actors involved such as university leaders corporate executives and government policymakers often struggle to strike the delicate balance required for success It is a world where mishaps are as common as best practices and the potential for growth and innovation remains untapped due to these hurdles The Role of Leaders and Actors in Academy Business Partnerships Issues of Risk Trust Power Ethics and Cooperation emerge as the guiding light in this labyrinthine journey This book does not just highlight the issues it presents concrete solutions By offering a comprehensive exploration of the roles and responsibilities of key players from university presidents to corporate executives it equips readers with the knowledge and tools needed to navigate the intricate dynamics of these partnerships successfully With real world examples of best practices and the cautionary tales of the dark side of leadership this book empowers academic scholars and corporate leaders alike to make informed decisions and forge collaborations that truly benefit both sides

Curriculum, Schooling and Applied Research Jennifer Donovan, Karen Trimmer, Nicholas Flegg, 2020-10-15 This book explores how teachers can navigate the complex process of managing change within the classroom The chapters highlight the new challenges that have arisen with the emergence and introduction of educational technology as teachers find themselves having to be responsive to the needs and demands of multiple stakeholders Traversing a range of conceptual disciplinary and methodological boundaries the editors and contributors investigate the tensions that impinge on research based change and how to integrate directed changes into their education system and classroom Subsequently this volume argues that posing these questions leads to increased understanding of the possible long term effects of educational change and how teachers can know whether their solutions are effective     Journalism at Historically Black Colleges and Universities Jerry Crawford II, 2022-03-17 Historically Black Colleges and Universities HBCUs are facing challenges to their continued existence on several fronts One is fiscally as federal funding for education has been cut and the responsibility for paying for higher education has been levied on students and parents Another challenge is the amount of endowment dollars available to them and lastly there are questions today as to if HBCUs are still needed in a society that has allowed African Americans to attend Predominantly White Institutions PWIs The third are the challenges placed on institutions as a whole and specific departments in attaining and maintain accreditation Finally how are administrators handling these challenges during the pandemic and their own health and well being This book explores journalism accreditation at HBCUs and is informed by many years of research into how journalism units have acquired and lost accreditation The book also examines Hispanic Serving Institutions HSIs and Tribal Colleges and Universities TCUs and how they are navigating accreditation and financial challenges The book will be of interest to faculty students scholars and administrators of journalism studies     Comparative Higher Education Politics Jens Jungblut, Martin Maltais, Erik C. Ness, Deanna Rexe, 2023-05-12 This volume provides an overview of the state of the art of research on the politics of higher education policy in Canada the US and Western Europe Each thematic chapter combines an extensive literature review with original empirical work that further advances our understanding of policymaking dynamics in higher education The book covers five key aspects of policymaking namely the politics of governance as well as funding reforms the role of interest groups policy diffusion and policy framing These aspects are explored using a unique comparative design that combines comparisons within as well as between regions and among the five key aspects of policymaking The conceptual framework is anchored in approaches from institutional theory namely sociological and historical institutionalism This rare book coherently focuses on the same critical challenges that higher education faces in a changing global and national environment These include vital governance and finance issues and how these are framed and contested by different organizations and interest groups as well as state actors Within a broad institutionalist framework that reflects the tensions between historical university and national legacies on the one hand and regional and global influences on the other the authors focus on policymaking in Western Europe Canada and the US This is an engaging and creative endeavor a must read for scholars and policymakers alike Francisco O Ramirez Graduate School of Education Stanford University This is a real achievement that will contribute to the development of research in politics of higher education policy finance and economic development It is timely in an era when higher learning is increasingly salient to national policy interest groups and supranational bodies such as the EU The focus on Canada the US and Europe frames a comparative approach to a competitive higher educational policy arena that has not received systematic study Sheila Slaughter Louise McBee Institute of Higher Education University of Georgia This fills a gaping hole in research on the politics of higher education In bringing together research perspectives from governance studies with comparative public policy as well as scholars from Europe and Northern America this volume will serve as an important reference point for a rapidly growing research field The exceptionally high quality of editorship is documented by the fact that the chapters are convincingly subsumed under five sub themes In short A must read for any researcher and student interested in understanding the political foundations of higher education Marius R Busemeyer Department of Politics and Public Administration University of Konstanz

Black Woman on Board Donna J. Nicol, 2024 Offers a rare view inside the university boardroom uncovering the vital role Black women educational leaders have played in ensuring access and equity for all LONGLISTED 2025 PEN American Open Book Award WINNER 2024 Best Indie Book Award in Non Fiction History Politics and Social Sciences Black Woman on Board Claudia Hampton the California State University and the Fight to Save Affirmative Action examines the leadership strategies that Black women educators have employed as influential power brokers in predominantly white colleges and universities in the United States Author Donna J Nicol tells the extraordinary story of Dr Claudia H Hampton the California State University CSU system s first Black woman trustee who later became the board s first woman chair and her twenty year fight 1974 94 to increase access within the CSU for historically marginalized and underrepresented groups Amid a growing white backlash against changes brought on by the 1960s Civil Rights and Black Power Movements Nicol argues that Hampton enacted sly civility to persuade fellow trustees CSU system officials and state lawmakers to enforce federal and state affirmative action mandates Black Woman on Board explores how Hampton methodically played the game of boardmanship using the soft power she cultivated amongst her peers to remove barriers that might have impeded the implementation and expansion of affirmative action policies and programs In illuminating the ways that Hampton transformed the CSU as the affirmative action trustee this remarkable book makes an important contribution to the history of higher education and to the historiography of Black women s educational leadership in the post Civil Rights era
