attested to in texts dating back to the 13th century BCE In the Bible it is known as Calah and the city is now called Nimrud from an association with the Biblical figure Nimrod Nimrud is located in northern Iraq on the east bank of the Tigris River about 20 miles south of modern Mosul and ancient Nineveh An ancient Assyrian capital during the Neo Assyrian period the city has produced many glorious artifacts and provided countless insights into this ancient civilization but the history of the city after the fall of the Assyrians has proven just as turbulent and interesting Nimrud The History and Legacy of the Ancient Assyrian City chronicles the origins of the city how it became a power center in antiquity and its controversial fate Along with pictures depicting important people places and events you will learn about Nimrud like never before Early History of Assyria Sidney Smith,1928 The Gentile Nations; Or, the History and Religion of the Egyptians, Assyrians, Babylonians, Medes, Persians, Greeks, and Romans : ... George Smith,1855 Ancient and Modern Assyrians George V. Yana,2008-04-10 Some scholars have doubted or denied the continuity of the Assyrian people from the times of empire to the present time This work based on a scientific analysis sheds light on the subject and demonstrates the continuous existence of the Assyrian people Assyria northern Iraq was a state grouped about the heavily fortified city of Ashur on the middle of the Tigris River Assyrians had become civilized in the third millennium BC under the impetus of Mesopotamian development They created the first empire known to history that was run by an empire administration The empire created by Sargon Sharukin much earlier in the third millennium did not have an administration to hold it together Toward the close of the Bronze Age 1700 1200 BC Assyria had expanded westward to the middle of the Euphrates River and in the south they held Babylon temporarily Tiglat Pileser I 1114 1076 extended Assyrian rule to the Mediterranean But Adadnirari II 911 891 BC may be called the father of Assyrian imperial administration Empire building was a necessity of economic development which was based on the technological advances caused by the introduction of iron and the alphabet International trade was necessary for the growth of industry and manufacture and the Assyrians became the tools to carry out this historic economic necessity The Assyrian army was the first army to use iron arms The Assyrian Empire was defeated in 612 BC by an alliance of Medes an Iranian people Persians Iran Babylonians and Cythians Since then Assyria has been governed by Persians Greeks Arabs and Turks The Assyrians were the first non Jewish people to accept Christianity and since then Christianity has become their identity They burned all their ancient books that reminded them of their pagan kings Thus with time a dark cloud was cast over their memories that separated them from their glorious past But now and then there were sparks from the remote past that testified to the persistence of memory Only recently has the full national awareness been restored There are still scholars who doubt or deny any link between the ancient and the Modern Assyrians They argue that the Assyrians were all massacred during the destruction of their empire This book sets out to demonstrate that the Assyrians were not all massacred during the destruction of their country in 612 BC and that they emerged as a Christian people in Assyria northern Iraq and the neighboring countries A History of Babylonia and Assyria Robert William Rogers,1900 The History subjected to the influences of its many neighbors in southern Mesopotamia Anatolia Syria the Zagros Mountains and even from the barbarian tribes north of the Caucasus Mountains Their presence can be seen today in the architecture and artifacts of the ruined city
