Peculiarities of Behavior - Wandering Mania, Dipsomania, Cleptomania, Pyromania and Allied Impulsive Acts. Wilhelm

Stekel, 2021-01-08 This fascinating book contains the first of two volumes written by Wilhelm Stekel pertaining to the peculiarities of human behaviour with this volume covering such phenomena as wandering mania dipsomania kleptomania pyromania and other allied impulsive acts Stekel was a pioneer of the study of human instinct and emotions which were examined here for the first time in the light of their developmental history This fascinating and accessible book details far reaching investigations into the depths of the human soul perfect for the student of psychology interested in the intricacies of impulsive behaviour Chapters contained herein include Instinct Affect and Impulse The Impulse to Wander Flight into Parapathiac delirium Narcotomania Drug Addiction Stealing and The Sexual Roots of Kleptomania Wilhelm Stekel 1868 1940 was an Austrian psychologist and physician He was an early follower of the seminal Sigmund Freud often described as Freud

s most distinguished pupil and commonly hailed as one of the founding fathers of modern psychoanalytical methodology Many vintage texts such as this are increasingly scarce and expensive and it is with this in mind that we are republishing this volume now in an affordable modern high quality edition It comes complete with a specially commissioned new biography of the author Curved Thought and Textual Wandering Ellen E. Berry,2025-10-01 This wide ranging and provocative study traces Gertrude Stein s production of avant garde texts that radically disrupted traditional notions of how fiction should be defined valued and read The book combines feminist and postmodern perspectives to illuminate new facets of Stein s novels and to situate them within an expanded definition of the postmodern The author argues that if we fail to consider the contexts within which postmodern innovations occur and if we subsume all formal disruptions under a generalized postmodern mode we obscure important differences among authors and distort the notion of the postmodern itself The study expands our understanding of Stein as a novelist and a narrative theorist repositions her work within a revised notion of literary history and thus clarifies points of relation and divergence between modernism and postmodernism It also assists in the historicizing of the postmodern literary emergence by insisting on the centrality of gender as a category of analysis Finally it argues for the importance of constructing definitions of postmodernism that will allow space to consider the complexity and diversity of its cultural practices Curved Thought and Textual Wandering will be welcomed by scholars of modernism of Gertrude Stein and of feminist and narrative theory and postmodern culture Yeats Annual Richard J Finneran,2016-07-27 Education of a Wandering Young Man C S Lam,2021-07-19 Convinced that an overseas education with ample opportunities for traveling is superior to a local one Lam took up a Singapore government scholarship to study in Loughborough UK Beginning with the very first winter vacation in Germany where he travelled solo and almost lost his life on a highway in Cologne he tried to visit a different country every vacation Whenever possible he would stay with locals so as to learn about their culture and way of life such as working on a kibbutz in Israel lingering on a farm in Zambia and trekking from one village to another in the Kelabit Highlands in Sarawak In the five years covered in this book he had set foot on five continents and interacted with people of diverse nationalities and ethnic tribes The experiences had enriched his life beyond the confines of the four walls of a classroom they constituted a form of education which he considers superior to the conventional approach through books and the internet He believes that what one learns by rote one is likely to forget later but what one has personally experienced one is likely to remember for life For this reason he chose to experience life

Roaming, Wandering, Deviation and Error Mayra Helena Alves Olalquiaga,2016-03-08 This book proposes a reading of John Milton s epic Paradise Lost in relation to four novels by the contemporary novelist Salman Rushdie The Satanic Verses The Moor s Last Sigh Fury and The Ground Beneath Her Feet In such a reading terms such as influence and inheritance will inevitably come up Rather than bypass them the book refines such terms in order to meet some of the challenges posed by contemporary critical theory in the field of comparative studies In this more nuanced comparative reading of these texts which looks beyond a linear paradigm Jacques Derrida's term destinerrance is taken up as a means for thinking how the work of this successor Rushdie dialogues with Milton conferring on the epic an elusive kind of afterlife Destinerrance will be taken here to signal an ongoing process of re-signification of texts that does away with the notions of adhesion or similarity to an original central point In the case of Milton and his successor the fictional work of Salman Rushdie will be seen as constituting sites in which collaboration and contestation in relation to the epic are simultaneously and continually staged Rushdie can then be seen to interweave Miltonic images of Eden of the fall and a Satanic discourse of transgression to write territories and characters constituted in the crossings of domains of difference territories in which colonial past and contemporary cultural formations and power structures are continually questioned and negotiated In this way his work enacts a re-signifying of Milton's text mediating in these deviations the way it reaches us today

Prophecy, Madness, and Holy War in Early Modern Europe Leigh Penman, 2023 This book provides a fresh and exciting perspective on the religious and political history of seventeenth century Europe by focussing on the life of the German prophet Ludwig Gifftheil Between 1624 and 1661 Gifftheil travelled across Europe petitioning rulers to bring an end to the continent's endemic warfare When these requests fell on deaf ears Gifftheil decided to wage a holy war to establish a divine peace through violence

The Poetics of Novels M. Axelrod, 1999-09-17 The Poetics of Novels deals with the fundamentals of novel writing and the execution of such and though it engages specific notions of literary and cultural theory it privileges the architectonics of the texts themselves as it crosses boundaries of both time and culture Novels include Austen's Northanger Abbey Beckett's Company Brontë's Wuthering Heights Cervantes' Don Quixote Flaubert's Madame Bovary Hamsun's Hunger Hardy's Tess of the D'Urbervilles Lispector's Hour of the Star and Smart's By Grand Central Station I Sat Down and Wept

Fitzmyer, 1979-06 Here in One Convenient Volume are Two Works by Joseph A Fitzmyer that have been influential in shaping the study of the New Testament during the past two decades Essays on the Semitic Background of the New Testament and A Wandering Aramean Collected Aramaic Essays

The Postmodern Wandering Scholar Ken Evans, 2017-12-23 This book is a real life documentary of two of these challenges and their eventual successful outcomes and their discoveries but more than that it is an adventure story in ideas and the surprising synchronicity that is the Daily Lot of the postmodernist wandering scholar Read on and enjoy the journey

Resilience and the Wandering Subject Supriya Daniel, Anu Kuriakose, 2024-09-24 What are the different contours of defining a subject How does a subject form in the act of resilience This multi author book explores the concept of a wandering subject especially in the context of resilience The wandering subject can be understood as an ever forming subject through different mobilities This movement is not just the physical movement compelled by a certain agency but also the various mobilities of the selves of the subject mobilities through spaces the interconnections formed with other subjects and the fluidity between the subject object spaces at most times compelled by the spirit of resilience Each chapter of the book delves into the myriad modalities of movement in spaces that are imagined or real The space is always one of contestation be it emerging from gender conflict or that of a nation or a trauma inflicted by war In this mode of displacement either physical emotional or spiritual and at times a seepage of all the subject evolves and defines itself beyond the boundaries of binaries It questions available definitions of self subjecthood and identity and prompts one to imagine ways of comprehending and elucidating the concept of subject In this sense the book not only illuminates multiple perspectives on the subject but also compels the reader to formulate their own mode of grappling with this complex idea of the subject It renders itself as an aid to current and future scholars to re imagine and re configure the subject      The Wandering Jew Eugène Sue, 1845
