Waterman Fund Essay Contest:

New Wilderness Voices Christine Woodside, 2017-07-04 Guy and Laura Waterman spent a lifetime reflecting on and writing about the mountains of the Northeast. The Waterman Fund seeks to further their legacy of stewardship through an annual essay contest that celebrates and explores issues of wilderness, wildness, and humanity. Since 2008, the Waterman Fund has partnered with the journal Appalachia in seeking out new and emerging voices on these subjects and in publishing the winning essay in the journal. Part of the contest's mission is to find and support such emerging writers, and a number of them have gone on to publish other work in Appalachia or their own books. The contest has succeeded admirably in fulfilling its mission: new writers have brought fresh perspectives to these timeless issues of wilderness and wildness. In New Wilderness Voices, these winning essays are collected for the first time along with the best runners-up. Together, they make up an important and celebratory addition to the growing body of environmental literature and shed new light on our wild spaces.

New Wilderness Voices Christine Woodside, 2017-07-04 A literary celebration of the Northeast's wild places Forest and Crag Laura Waterman, Guy Waterman, 2019-02-28 Thirty years after its initial publication, this beloved classic is back in print. Superbly researched and written, Forest and Crag is the definitive history of our love affair with the mountains of the Northeastern United States, from the Catskills and the Adirondacks of New York to the Green Mountains of Vermont, the White Mountains of New Hampshire, and the mountains of Maine. It's all here in one comprehensive volume: the struggles of early pioneers in America's first frontier wilderness; the first ascent of every major peak in the Northeast; the building of the trail networks, including the Appalachian Trail; the golden era of the summit resort hotels; and the unforeseen consequences of the backpacking boom of the 1970s and 80s. Laura and Guy Waterman spent a decade researching and writing Forest and Crag, and in it they draw together widely scattered sources. What emerges is a compelling story of our ever-evolving relationship with the mountains and wilderness, a story that will fascinate historians, outdoor enthusiasts, and armchair adventurers alike.

Losing the Garden Laura Waterman, 2025-02-01 In 1971, Laura and Guy Waterman left New York City for thirty-seven acres in Vermont, where they would live in a hand-built cabin without running water or electricity for the next thirty years. It was a life based largely in the nineteenth century: a life of hauling their own water and growing their own food; of lighting candles in the evening and heating their cabin with wood from the surrounding forest. Combined with the trail tending they did in the alpine zone of the White Mountains and the books they wrote about environmental stewardship, it made for a rewarding, healthy, and fruitful existence. But that was only part of their story. Guy's depression was another part, and his ultimate decision to take his own life on the wintry summit of Mount Lafayette—a decision he made with Laura's support—was the crux, a term climbers use to describe the hardest move on the climb. Being a climber herself, Laura had to confront the crux. This meant taking a close look at Guy's suicide and asking herself a hard question: How or why had she come to support the decision of the man she loved? In Losing the Garden, Laura Waterman comes to terms with her husband's long depression and the complex nature of a gifted humorous man who was driven by obsession self absorption and a strange lack of confidence Her account of her own marriage idyllic from the outside but riddled from within is nonetheless a love story a portrait of an intense and unusual marriage and an affirmation of life after loss Yankee Rock & Ice Laura Waterman,Guy Waterman,Michael Wejchert,2018-10-01 First published in 1993 and hailed as a classic Yankee Rock Ice is now reissued in a new edition with four new chapters covering the 1990s through today to bring the book up to date This comprehensive and entertaining history of roped rock and ice climbing in the Northeast traces the growth of this popular sport in New England and New York and covers the first trailblazers of the eighteenth century through today s events and personalities Well known mountaineers and preservationists Guy and Laura Waterman have explored every corner of the mountains of New England and New York and done solid historical research on first ascents of classic routes and the climbers who have made them legendary Climber Michael Wejchert joins Laura for the work on the second edition You Want To Go Where? Jeff Blumenfeld,2009-06-17 Christopher Columbus needed a sponsor for a dangerous expedition but the King of Portugal wasn t interested He repackaged his proposal for the Queen of Spain She put Columbus on retainer and the rest is history Columbus may not have been the first to discover America but he had a great publicist That s where Jeff Blumenfeld comes in For many years using a PR specialty called adventure marketing Jeff has connected explorers and their projects with corporate sponsors looking to demonstrate product performance in extreme conditions His book takes the reader from Erik Weihe n mayer s expedition to be the first blind man to summit Mt Everest to the first confirmed dogsled expedition of the North Pole to Audrey Mestre s deadly free dive expedition off Bayahibe Beach in the Dominican Republic You Want To Go Where is the only book that not only takes you behind the scenes of some of the most dangerous adventure expeditions in recent years but shows how you can fund and arrange your own trip including details on everything from grants to sponsorships For anyone who s ever had a dream to scale the tallest mountain or cross the largest ocean You Want To Go Where is ideal for armchair explorers and budding adventurers alike Appalachia ,2008 Grant Quarterly ,1968 Grant Data Quarterly ,1968 Publication ,1970 Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 United States.
