The Right Hand of Doom and Other Tales of Solomon Kane R. E. Howard, 2007-01-09 The sixteenth century Puritan Solomon Kane has a thirst for justice which surpasses common reason Sombre of mood clad in black and grey he never sought to analyse his motives and he never wavered once his mind was made up Though he always acted on impulse he firmly believed that all his actions were governed by cold and logical reasonings A hunger in his soul drove him on and on an urge to right all wrongs protect all weaker things and avenge all crimes against right and justice Immune to the attractions of the opposite sex he seems drawn by some psychological distress beacon to places where he knows only that he will be called upon to defend the helpless or more often exact retribution on their behalf Himself a Christian possessed of enormous strength and skill in swordplay he yet has little hesitation in calling upon the assistance of his Voodoo practising friend N Longa when strength skill and Christian belief are not enough
