

Chapter 3 Reading Quiz

These questions are intended as a quick check on the reading—they will let you know which students completed the assignment but not whether or not students actually understood the reading. Often students will answer questions with a detail that is not exactly what I was looking for but that shows that they have done the reading; I generally give credit for these answers. I also give credit for any single option listed in the answer key below. Additionally, I usually offer one extra question so that students can miss one and still get 100. These questions have been checked against some of the online summaries (though they are updated frequently, so you might want to double check them). Therefore, the reason why some questions say “besides...” is because those are the details included in an online summary. Finally, I suggest using only a few of the questions and varying your choices if you teach more than one section of the class that will take the quiz.

1. Describe one detail that Nick gives about the preparations for a party.

mills royce takes people to the party; station wagon meets trains; eight servants; extra gardener; 5 crates oranges and lemons; machine that extract juice of 2200 oranges in half an hour; hundreds of feet of canvas; colored lights; food details include baked ham; orchestra.

2. What does Nick almost do before he runs into Jordan or with whom has Jordan come to the party?

he goes to the bar and almost gets drunk; she has come to the party with a college student

3. What story do two girls tell about the last time they came to one of Gatsby's parties?

one of them ruined her dress and Gatsby sent a new one

4. What joke is made about the woman who is singing and crying?

that she should sing the notes on her face

5. Of what do the spectators have a hard time convincing the man who gets in a car accident?

that the wheel is completely off his car

6. Give one detail from what Nick describes as his typical routine that summer.

he goes to dinner at the university club; he wanders around the city; he imagines how others lives might be
