The Happy Prince Oscar Wilde, 2020-12-03 HIGH above the city on a tall column stood the statue of the Happy Prince He was gilded all over with thin leaves of fine gold for eyes he had two bright sapphires and a large red ruby glowed on his sword hilt He was very much admired indeed He is as beautiful as a weathercock remarked one of the Town Councillors who wished to gain a reputation for having artistic tastes only not quite so useful he added fearing lest people should think him unpractical which he really was not Why can't you be like the Happy Prince asked a sensible mother of her little boy who was crying for the moon The Happy Prince never dreams of crying for anything I am glad there is some one in the world who is quite happy muttered a disappointed man as he gazed at the wonderful statue He looks just like an angel said the Charity Children as they came out of the cathedral in their bright scarlet cloaks and their clean white pinafores How do you know said the Mathematical Master you have never seen one Ah but we have in our dreams answered the children and the Mathematical Master frowned and looked very severe for he did not approve of children dreaming One night there flew over the city a little Swallow His friends had gone away to Egypt six weeks before but he had stayed behind for he was in love with the most beautiful Reed He had met her early in the spring as he was flying down the river after a big yellow moth and had been so attracted by her slender waist that he had stopped to talk to her Shall I love you said the Swallow who liked to come to the point at once and the Reed made him a low bow So he flew round and round her touching the water with his wings and making silver ripples This was his courtship and it lasted all through the summer
