Anderson, 2013 Sinophobia The Huawei Story is an exhaustive study of the firm's rise to global prominence and the subsequent difficulties it has encountered in trying to enter the U S market Employing over 1 000 reports from academia blogs media sources and techie news sites I have been able to assemble the evidence that suggests the U S Congress has been engaged in a witch hunt and reveal some of the warts Huawei has exposed in its business practices over the last 25 years Prologue A brief history of Sinophobia in the United States since Chinese immigrants first came to work the California gold rush and its consequences for today's response to news Chinese firms are seeking to do business in this country Chapter 1 Huawei's failed first attempt to purchase a U S business and a brief history of the Chinese company including culture and marketing practices Chapter 2 Huawei's failure to win a multi billion dollar contract to upgrade Sprint's U S telecommunications network and an in depth evaluation and refutation of congressional claims the Chinese company is up to widespread nefarious activities Chapter 3 Huawei's battle with the Committee for Foreign Investment in the United States including the Chinese firm's unprecedented decision to initially tell the Committee to drop dead thereby forcing presidential action I look at Huawei's efforts to start a division in the United States and then close with a discussion on the value of foreign direct investment for Washington and American citizens as a whole Chapter 4 Huawei's battle with the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence a look at the rumors that fueled this fight and the final outcome a disappointed set of House members who fail to find the smoking gun that substantiates their charges Chapter 5 Representative Frank Wolf's one man crusade to sink Huawei and his ridiculous claims I also examine Huawei's public relations campaign and efforts to put the critics at ease Chapter 6 Huawei's travails in Australia echoing the situation in Washington also without evidence and the subsequent debates in Canada and New Zealand I also look at Huawei's effort at perception management with the release of a controversial white paper on cyber security Epilogue A discussion of Huawei's 13 Sep 2012 congressional testimony and the crestfallen members of the committee holding the hearing I examine warts that have yet to be exposed and close with final thoughts on the causes and costs of Sinophobia

Brand and Myth Stefan Waller,2025-03-17 Brand and Myth A Cultural Philosophical Consideration Brands reflect the desires of the modern individual In Nike it's the hope of achieving success by simply doing it in a Mercedes it's the pursuit of status and in a MasterCard it encapsulates the longing for those moments that cannot be bought with money but for which you still need money The list can go on for a long time Despite the fact that these brand messages are understood across various cultures they have played a secondary role in cultural philosophical debates To professional thinkers brands appear at best as banal and at worst as instruments in a malign illusionary context They are seen as expressions of capitalism something to be viewed critically and thus rejected From a more neutral standpoint the engagement with brands is understood as a subject of business administration marketing and design and therefore considered outside of one's own area of expertise

Claws of the Panda Jonathan Manthorpe,2024-05-04 Claws of the Panda tells the story of Canada's failure to construct a workable policy towards the People's Republic of China In particular the book tells of Ottawa

s failure to recognize and confront the efforts by the Chinese Communist Party to infiltrate and influence Canadian institutions and to exert control over Canadians of Chinese heritage It shows how Canadian leaders have constantly misjudged the reality of the relationship while the CCP and its agents have benefited from Canadian naivete The Expanded and Updated edition of Claws of the Panda arrives at a crucial point as Canada's delusions about its friendly relations with the CCP have fallen apart since the book's initial publication This edition sets out to uncover Ottawa's relationship with Beijing in light of the CCP regime's increasingly suspicious and belligerent relations with the US and Europe The age of a distinctly Canadian bilateral relationship with Beijing is over Pioneers Tian Tao, Yin Zhifeng, 2017-11-16 Founded in 1987 by a former engineer in China's People's Liberation Army Ren Zhengfei Huawei Technologies is today the world's largest telecoms equipment manufacturer and second behind Apple in smartphones Its emergence into a multinational with over 175 000 employees all around the world is nothing short of extraordinary This book gets to the heart of the pioneers within Huawei the individuals who blazed a trail through unexplored and undeveloped territories that enabled Huawei to expand globally in such impressive terms Their personal stories tell us about the extraordinary commitment determination and ability required for companies to establish new ground in some of the most difficult parts of the world This unconventional form of heroism remains a central part of Huawei's culture and makes it stand out in today's business world China's Big Power Ambition under Xi Jinping Suisheng Zhao, 2021-12-14 Instead of emphasizing China as a developing country Chinese President Xi Jinping has identified China as a big power and accentuated China's big power status This book explores the narratives and driving forces behind China's big power ambition Three narratives rooted in Sino centralism are examined One is China's demands for the reform of global governance to reflect the values and interests of China as a rising power Another is China's Belt and Road Initiative to construct a nascent China centred world order The third is the China model and self image promotion in the developing countries There are many forces that have driven or constrained China's big power ambition This collection focuses on two sets of forces One is China's domestic politics and economic incentives and disincentives The other is China's geo political and geo economic interests These forces have both motivated and constrained China's big power ambition The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of Contemporary China
