Imperial Japan's Allied Prisoners of War in the South Pacific C. Kenneth Quinones,2021-09-30 Three weeks after Imperial Japan s surrender five men dressed in baggy khaki uniforms stared at the camera They and two colleagues were the only survivors out of the 210 Allied airmen which Imperial Japan had imprisoned in paradise. Joining them were 18 British soldiers the only survivors of 600 of their countrymen similarly but separately imprisoned. Another 10 000 Allied soldiers and civilians were also imprisoned on the South Pacific island of New Britain. More than half died before liberation. What motivated such inhumane treatment? This book's quest for an answer traces the genesis of Bushido, Imperial Japan's martial code, and surveys the prisoners' recollections of their ordeal as the Battle for Rabaul raged around them from 1942 to March 1944. United States Army in World War II, 2000 American Military History Daniel K. Blewett, 2008-12-30 In this companion volume to his 1995 bibliography of the same title, Daniel Blewett continues his foray into the vast literature of military studies. As did its predecessor, it covers land, air, and naval forces primarily but not exclusively from a U.S. perspective, with the welcome emergence of small wars from publishing obscurity. In addition to identifying relevant organizations and associations, Blewett has gathered together the very best in chronologies, bibliographies, biographical dictionaries, indexes, journals, abstracts, glossaries, and encyclopedias, each accompanied by a brief descriptive annotation. This work remains a pertinent addition to the general reference collections of public and academic libraries, as well as special libraries, government documents collections, military and intelligence agency libraries, and historical societies and museums. The Pacific School and Home Journal, 1878 The Pacific School & Home Journal Anonymous, 2024-08-22 Reprint of the original first published in 1878. The Pacific War Papers Donald M. Goldstein, 2014-05-27 The Pacific War Papers is an annotated collection of extremely rare Japanese primary source documents translated into English that provides an invaluable resource for historians and students of World War II. These naval and diplomatic documents come from the collection of the late Gordon Prange, the eminent scholar of Pearl Harbor, who obtained them from Japanese naval leaders while working for the Military History Section of the American forces that occupied Japan. Donald M. Goldstein and Katherine V. Dillon have assembled this collection so that these important documents are not lost to history. The editors also provide expert commentary to introduce and explain the importance of the materials. This book forms the companion volume to The Pearl Harbor Papers: Inside the Japanese Plans, Brassey's Inc. 1993, which Goldstein and Dillon also edited. Most of the documents published here are not available anywhere else, with many translated for the first time. This edited collection covers three main topics: the Japanese navy before World War II, prewar diplomacy and politics, and Japanese naval operations and policy during the war. The documents include diary extracts and candid short monographs written by high-ranking Japanese officers immediately after the war. They shed new light on the vast naval buildup before the war, the development of the navy's operational concepts for war with the United States, the organization and tactics of aircraft carrier forces, and the failure of Japanese submarine operations. No World War II library will be complete without this important volume. Farmers' Guide, 1897 Consumer's Guide, 1944 Letter from the Secretary of War, Transmitting, in Answer to a Senate Resolution of March 2, 1877, a Copy of the Final Report of the Operations of the Troops in the Modoc Country United States.
