About the Service:

Washington (WA) Interpreter (Medical)Interpreter (Medical) Practice Course

The Washington State Interpreter Education Program is an online program for students who are interested in becoming certified medical interpreters. The course is designed to prepare students for the national exam, which will qualify them to work as a medical interpreter anywhere in the country. It is also designed to develop their skills in medical terminology and other areas related to interpreting.

The Washington State Interpreter Education Program is offered by the board of higher education and training (BHT), which has been in existence since 1921. It was created as a means of providing quality educational opportunities to residents of Washington State while at the same time ensuring that they are qualified for jobs or other opportunities that may be available to them in the future.
