Water and Society from Ancient Times to the Present Federica Sulas,Innocent Pikirayi,2018-08-14 As water availability management and conservation become global challenges there is now wide consensus that historical knowledge can provide crucial information to address present crises offering unique opportunities to appreciate the solutions and mechanisms societies have developed over time to deal with water in all its forms from rainfall to groundwater This unique collection explores how ancient water systems relate to present ideas of resilience and sustainability and can inform future strategy Through an investigation of historic water management systems along with the responses to and impact of various water driven catastrophes contributors to this volume present tenable solutions for the long term use of water resources in different parts of the world The discussion is not limited to issues of the past seeking instead to address the resonance and legacy of water histories in the present and future Water and Society from Ancient Times to the Present speaks to an archaeological and non archaeological scholarly audience and will be a useful primary reference text for researchers and graduate students from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds including archaeology anthropology history ecology geography geology architecture and development studies

The Archaeological Identity of the Mutapa State Innocent Pikirayi,1993

Farmers, Kings, and Traders Martin Hall,1990-10-15 In this overview of the origins and development of black societies in southern Africa Martin Hall reconstructs the region s past by thoroughly examining both the archaeological and the historical records Beginning with the gradual southward movement of the earliest farmers nearly two thousand years ago Hall tracks the emergence of precolonial states such as Mapungubwe and Great Zimbabwe Farmers Kings and Traders concludes with the devastating effects of colonialism Through a close reading of the accounts of early travelers colonialists archaeologists and historians Hall places in context the often contradictory histories that have been written of this region The result is an illuminating look at how ideas about the past have themselves changed over time

Archives, Objects, Places and Landscapes Manyanga, Munyaradzi,Chirikure, Shadreck,2017-04-11 Dissatisfaction has matured in Africa and elsewhere around the fact that often the dominant frameworks for interpreting the continent s past are not rooted on the continent s value system and philosophy This creates knowledge that does not make sense especially to local communities The big question therefore is can Africans develop theories that can contribute towards the interpretation of the African past using their own experiences Framed within a concept revision substrate the collection of papers in this thought provoking volume argues for concept revision as a step towards decolonizing knowledge in the post colony The various papers powerfully expose that cleansed knowledge is not only locally relevant it is also locally accessible and globally understandable      Privileged Places in South Central Mozambique Solange Macamo,2006      The Political Legacy of Colonialism in Zimbabwe Everisto Benyera,2024-11-18 This book investigates the political legacy of colonialism in contemporary African institutions Using the case study of electoral and justice institutions in post colonial Zimbabwe the book explores how those in post colonial states relate to and with institutions initially designed to oppress them and remain structurally and systematically colonial The book argues that the colonial era colonised the land knowledge and minds of Africans resulting in injustice and epistemicides The book demonstrates how the critical institutions of elections and justice have been rendered anti black and toxic The book calls for Africa to invest in epistemic independence unencumbered by Western political modernity and then deploy that independence to build reconstituted institutions structures and systems that serve the interests of Africans This book will be an important read for African policymakers and researchers working on African politics governance and international relations      Port Cities and Intruders Michael N. Pearson,2002-10-14 Selected by Choice Magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title In Port Cities and Intruders historian Michael Pearson explores the role of port cities and their orientation relations between the coast and the interior the place of the coast in the world economy and the impact of the Portuguese in the early modern period      Zambezia ,1996      The Bible, the Bullet, and the Ballot Fabulous Moyo,2017-03-31 The Bible the Bullet and the Ballot provides a balanced account of the role of Christians Christian organisations and churches in sociopolitical transformation over the bedrock of colonial and nationalist politics in the past century in Zimbabwe Fabulous Moyo explores the broader social and political impact of prominent African Christian clergy who were sociopolitical activists such as Ndabaningi Sithole Abel Muzorewa and Canaan Banana It also highlights the role of missionaries who contributed to the African struggle for independence such as Ralph Edward Dodge Donal Lamont and Garfield Todd He examines the contributions of African nationalist parties and prominent politicians with Christian roots such as Joshua Nkomo and Robert Mugabe in the struggle for independence and their contribution in the postcolonial era in light of their Christian heritage and the collective pre independence nationalist ideals on nation building and national unity      Great Zimbabwe Shadreck Chirikure,2020-11-29 Conditioned by local ways of knowing and doing Great Zimbabwe develops a new interpretation of the famous World Heritage site of Great Zimbabwe It combines archaeological knowledge including recent material from the author s excavations with native concepts and philosophies Working from a large data set has made it possible for the first time to develop an archaeology of Great Zimbabwe that is informed by finds and observations from the entire site and wider landscape In so doing the book strongly contributes towards decolonising African and world archaeology Written in an accessible manner the book is aimed at undergraduate students graduate students and practicing archaeologists both in Africa and across the globe The book will also make contributions to the broader field such as African Studies African History and World Archaeology through its emphasis on developing synergies between local ways of knowing and the archaeology      The History of Africa Molefi Kete Asante, 2024-01-31 The new edition of this comprehensive survey of African history provides an accessible overview of the continent's narrative focusing on the autonomy and achievements of the African people The book brings readers closer to an authentic Africa by paying close attention to the lives of everyday people and highlighting insights and ideas that are often missed in typical survey texts The fourth edition offers expanded coverage of smaller linguistic and ethnic groups in Africa in order to provide a more inclusive history noting a few individual groups while also analyzing their contributions to the overall narrative and African culture Liberia's hidden history is given greater attention in this updated volume as well as the ethnic and religious tensions in Nigeria and Sudan While the book emphasizes that African history is always being made the fourth edition brings the record up to date and grapples with contemporary issues in culture and politics The History of Africa is an indispensable text for students and researchers in African history cultural studies philosophy and politics      The Historical Study of African Religion Terence O. Ranger, T. O. Ranger, Isaria N. Kimambo, 1976      Legacies of Stone William Joseph Dewey, 1997      Africa from the Sixteenth to the Eighteenth Century Unesco. International Scientific Committee for the Drafting of a General History of Africa, 1999      People Making History Peter S. Garlake, Andre Proctor, T. Barnes, 1985 Two titles complete the four part series of African history told by Africans from an African perspective Recommended for schools in Zimbabwe the series represents a reclaiming of history from the distortions of Eurocentric teaching Book 3 covers pre capitalist modes of production in Africa early merchant capitalism in Africa growth of industrial capitalism in Europe revolution and socialist transformation and capitalism in crisis Readers are encouraged to think critically and read the source material included In addition to giving attention to the great people in history the book focuses attention on the ordinary men and women peasant farmers workers mothers and children The people's voice is heard through direct quotations Book 4 covers colonialism and resistance Zimbabwe under colonial rule revolution and transformation and world ant imperialist struggles      Between Artifacts and Texts Anders Andrén, 2013-06-29 This is the first truly global survey of the relationship between artifacts and texts from historiographical methodological and analytical perspectives It analyzes the crucial relationship between material culture and writing in ancient societies employing examples from twelve major disciplines in historical archaeology and summarizing their role in five global methodological approaches It is valuable reading for advanced undergraduate students and instructors in any historical archaeological subject      Contemporary Stone Sculpture in Zimbabwe Celia Winter-Irving, 1993 Zimbabwe's stone sculpture is unique not only because of its individual form and content which is highly valued and acclaimed in the art centres of the world but because it springs from indigenous talent that lay hidden until the 1960s This book explores the creativity and craftsmanship of the Shona Chewa Yao and Mbunda artists who have earned international recognition for their remarkable work Contemporary Stone Sculpture in Zimbabwe provides a fascinating overview of an intriguing art form and is likely to become the standard work on the subject

Legitimate Governance in Africa Edward Kofi Quashigah, Obiora Chinedu Okafor, 2024-01-22 Any attempt to address the ever present problem of instability in Africa gives rise to questions regarding legitimate governance Without future thinking and action on the legitimacy of governance in Africa and how to secure it past mistakes will go unheeded rather than informing forward movement Surprisingly no existing work has comprehensively addressed this critical issue Legitimate Governance in Africa provides this needed coverage for the first time examining such key components in the struggle for legitimate governance as the role of the international community in addressing the problem the particular role women can play and ways in which women can improve their involvement in the whole enterprise of governance and the roles of non governmental organizations and civil society In this diverse collection of essays a wide range of expert legal contributors all familiar with the status of the struggle for legitimate governance in a specific institution or particular African state brings unique perspectives to the scholarly investigation of legitimate governance in Africa The individual authors have thought deeply about the complexities and subtleties of conducting and evaluating the business of African state governance considering both the practical sustainability of potential approaches and theoretical problems and issues The probing high quality essays facilitate a real understanding of the obstacles to progress in the struggle for legitimate governance Through their depth and diversity of views every one of the papers included in this collection enriches the pool of knowledge on this important subject
